

TOTAL STORE REDUCTION of modern furniture

DUE TO A CHANGE OF POLICY

I have decided to confine my future endeavor to specializing in elegant Early American and Provincial home furnishings. I am reducing the remaining Modern furniture, at a loss, to make room for the incoming new franchised lines. Augmented, in Early American, are floor samples, one of a kind, etc. An early selection is recommended.

MRS. G. MARSHALL
... Recent Bride

Gerrie Moore Married To Gene Marshall

In a five o'clock ceremony last Saturday, May 21, Miss Gerrie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore, 612 Amalpa, became the bride of Gene Marshall. The wedding took place at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. G. S. Zimmerman officiating. Mr. and Mrs. R. Hayes, 9111 Amalpa are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Moore escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a white linen sheath dress and a net crown. Her corsage was of white carnations. Jack Lane Ford stood as best man.

Immediately following the marriage, a reception for 40 guests was held at Caprino's restaurant.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Balboa. They are now at home at 2320 Lomita Blvd., Lomita.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall attended Torrance High school.

Fete Guests

Entertaining out-of-town friends at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes recently were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lipinsky of Rolling Hills, whose guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Moore of Sacramento, Calif. The dinner party guests included Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Trask of Torrance.

St. Catherine Parish 'May Festival' Monday

St. Catherine Laboure parish will stage its annual May Festival on Monday, May 30, on the parish grounds at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. The event will open at 1 p.m. and close at 9 p.m. Throughout the afternoon and until 7 p.m. a roast beef dinner will be served to the public. Edward Mach is serving as chef and is being assisted by Mrs. George Malinelli and Mrs. Stanley Gallwas.

John B. Fitzpatrick is serving as general chairman of the festival and his co-chairman is Joseph Mosbrucker. Louis Carso and Mrs. Roy Stincheomb are in charge of all festival tickets.

To add to the colorful event there will be a giant ferris wheel with brilliant neon lights and numerous other carnival rides to fascinate both young and old. Booths of all kinds will offer enjoyment for adults as well as children. These booths will be under the direction of parish members from the Holy Name Society, Ladies Council, Athletic Assn., Hawthorne and Gardena Knights of Columbus and the Boy Scouts from the parish.

Among the booths listed are doll, fish pond, fancy work, baseball, balloon and darts, six ball roll down, ham and bacon booth, hot dogs and soft drinks.

Other committee workers are Mmes. Carl Lascheck, William Touth, John Kiesler, George J. Carr, Leo E. Pryor, Peter H. Vellios and Dorothy Perkins.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to augment the necessary funds for the building of additional school classrooms.

According to Mother Gabriel, school principal, St. Catherine school has an enrollment of 832 pupils.

The parish, under the guidance of Rev. Raymond Tepe, serves over 3000 families in the South Bay area.

CARNIVAL SCENE... When the St. Catherine Laboure parish stages its annual May Festival next Monday on the school grounds, children and adults will be participating as this group is doing. William De Prez, chairman of the Holy Name Society booth and Mrs. Dee Ranstead, secretary of the Athletic Assn. serve hot dogs and drinks to Cathy Luger and Michael De Prez. The public is invited to join in the fun.

Author To Be Honored On Broadcast

Poetry Browsers of Los Angeles will present a Memorial Day program on their weekly Sunday broadcast over KIEV to the U.S. Service personnel honoring the late Henry Virgil Hammonds, brother of Mrs. Eertha Hammond McCullough, voter registrar in Torrance.

On the program, several poems from Mr. Hammonds' "Poems that Touch the Heart" will be read. The author's book was published during the last year of his life, 1959. He was a veteran of World War II.

Comments on the tribute to him will be tape recorded and presented to Mrs. McCullough. The program is slated for Sunday, May 29, at 4:30, 870 on the dial.

As a memorial to the author, forty copies of the book will be presented to the Veterans Administration Center for the patients' libraries, following the annual Memorial Service to be held at the Center Cemetery on May 30, at which the author's sister will occupy the seat of honor.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Lytle White, 1441 W. 216th, was surprised Tuesday evening with a champagne cocktail party given by her husband in celebration of her birthday.

A pleasant evening, complete with a lovely birthday cake, was enjoyed by Messrs. and Mmes. John Odell, William Malin, and Walter West.

Sons Honored On Birthdays "Hearts on Wings" Theme For Pi Phi Installation Rites

A double birthday party was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Le Feuvre, 5525 Michelle Dr., honoring their sons, Philip, who was five years old, and Larry, who celebrated his third birthday.

Games were played and prizes were won by Pamela Harwick and Steve Mayfield. Balloons and horns were party favors. Birthday cake was served with ice cream bars and punch.

Enjoying the party were Julie Lillo, Billy Porter, Pamela, Jeff and Bruce Harwick, Brian Dyck, Keith Newcomer, Gregory Yarborough, Chrissie Cripe, Steve, Philip and Robbie Mayfield, Tommy, Gary and John Lineman, and Patrick Reidy.

In the evening, the Le Feuvre family and their houseguest, Bob Crowe, had dinner at Marineland.

Pi Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi installed new officers at a dinner meeting at the Hacienda Hotel May 17. Taking office were Mmes. Joe Secula, president; Jim Meador, vice president; Earl Hennis, recording secretary; Jack Halgren, corresponding secretary; and Bob Todd, treasurer.

Mrs. Ernest Sommerville, who has served as president during the past year, conducted the installation. Theme for the evening was "Hearts on Wings."

Mrs. Robert Grommett served as chairman of the decorating committee. She was assisted by Mmes. Don Bromley, Frank Conely, Gordon Beebe and Dave Appar.

Place cards were miniature airplanes with small blue hearts bearing the name of the guest. Larger models of planes were placed down the center of the table on clouds of blue and white angel hair. On the head table was a larger plane flanked by two large hearts. Blue candles in silver net completed the decorations.

Mrs. Sommerville was presented with a scrapbook of the past year's activities by historian Mrs. Steve Mady and her assistant, Mrs. Bob Todd. The president was also given a full jeweled pin and gavel guard from the chapter. This was presented by Mrs. Charles Fitzpatrick, vice president.

The installation was planned at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Secula. The program was presented by Mrs. Hennis, Rodney Barker and Halgren, this year's pledges. It was titled "The Art of Thinking."

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Bertha Piehl.

Local Woman Visits Europe

Mrs. Carol Amberson, member of the Torrance Altrusa Club, left May 11 for the Altrusa International Inc., 1960 "People to People" tour of Europe.

Arriving in New York by jet, Mrs. Amberson took the Luft-Haus German Airlines to Frankfurt, Germany.

She will tour Germany, Switzerland, and at Oberammergau she will attend the Passion Play.

She will go to Venice, Italy, by way of the Brenner Pass and then to Florence, Italy, where she will attend the Italian Women's club.

Her itinerary includes a trip along the French Riviera and to Paris, where she will attend another women's club meeting. She flies then to Amsterdam, Holland, and on to London, England, where she will meet the British Altrusians before returning to the States.

Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. Willys Blount, 1444 El Prado, have as their houseguests for several days Mrs. Blount's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker and Mr. Henry Lee Baker and daughters, Barbara, Linda and Susan of Panama City, Florida. The visitors plan to go to San Francisco from Torrance and on their return trip home they will visit the Grand Canyon.

On Sunday evening, Mrs. Blount's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gage Baker and three children of Oxnard attended a family reunion dinner at the Blount home.
