PRESENTATION . . . A. L. Thomas, administrator at the Harbor General Hospital, presents a certificate of appreciation to Mrs. Louis Derouin, social welfare chairman of the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters. The court was one of the first to "adopt" a ward at the local hospital.

CDA Court Given Award On 'Recognition Night'

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, was one of several local organizations honored at the recent Recognition Night ceremonies staged at Los Angeles County Harbor General Hospital. Mrs. Louis Derouin, CDA social welfare chairman, received the award for the parties given each month in the court's adopted ward. Mr. A. L. Thomas, administrator of Harbor General Hospital, made the presentations, with the assistance of Mrs. Marguerite B. McAllister, volunteer coordinator.

Refreshments were served, games or other entertainment provided, and at times favors such as corsages appropriate for the season are given the patients. Court St. Catherine's volunteer work at Harbor General hospital dates back a good many years, to the time when it was a Veteran's Administration hospital, and the local court was the first organization to "adopt" a ward there. Mrs. J. J. MacDonald organized the project and interested the court members in this work.

Mrs. Don Cowden assists Mrs. Derouin with the hospital parties and makes the corsages and table favors used. Others active on the social welfare committee include the grand regent, Mrs. Richard Ban, and Mmes F. W. Rick, Edward Heatherman, Joseph Bagosi, Laurence Derouin, and Michael McMahon.

Junior-Senior Prom Is Staged at Marymount

With the Junior class hosting the Seniors, Marymount Palos Verdes last Saturday evening staged its annual Junior-Senior formal prom at Lourdes Hall on campus.

"Symphonie de la Mer" was the theme of the prom depicted with colorful decor. Brilliant coral tones blended into glistening fish, seashells and fishnets festooned Lourdes Hall. A sunken ship, complete with a treasure chest of jewels, keyed the theme, while a shrine of the Blessed Virgin floated on a bed of flowers in the center of a decorated pool.

Miss Michelle Bernard of San Pedro was crowned queen of the prom by Marymount's chaplain, Rev. Doria Grimard. A large pink seashell formed her throne. Queen Michelle's ladies-in-waiting were Suzanne McPherson of Manhattan Beach and Jerry Case of Long Beach.

The "Knights of Rhythm" played the dance tunes from a bandstand of palm fronds. Refreshments included cookies, cake and "sea slush."

Co-chairmen of the prom were the Misses Toni Pecarovich and Beth Sheridan of Rolling Hills; and Joanne Teubert of Long Beach. Miss Juanita Watson of Torrance served as refreshment chairman while Miss Theresa Miles of Long Beach was in charge of bids.

Chaperones included Messrs. and Mmes. Russell Barrera, Manhattan Beach; William McDonald, Torrance; and Richard Teubert and Alexander Girardi, of Long Beach.
