

Physicians, Civic Leaders Dedicate New Area Hospital

Tribute to volunteer workers who have aided the construction of a new $1,200,000 Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital was paid yesterday at simple dedication ceremonies at the 50-bed institution located at 1437 Lomita Blvd. in Harbor City.

Dr. W. Ballentine Henley, president of the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, was the speaker. He also cut a ribbon officially opening the hospital.

DR. GEORGE WALL, chief of staff, Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, superintendent of nurses, and Mrs. Grace Crawford, president of the hospital guild were in charge of showing visitors through the modern institution during the open house event from noon until 5 p.m. Coffee, cookies, and doughnuts were served by Guild members.

Dr. Merle Boyce of Redondo Beach was general chairman of the dedication program, and Herbert Davis, member of the
