Robison, 2350 W. 250th St., Lomita, exchanged her vows with Kenneth C. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anderson of Sturgis, S. D., are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of lace and tulle with a pearl studded portrait neckline. The full skirt was accented with panels of lace. A heart shaped pearl crown held the illusion veil and the bride carried two white orchids atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Gladys Thornton was the matron of honor. She wore lavender nylon and carried a colonial bouquet of lavender carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Nancy Geringer and Joan Hazelbaker. They were gowned in yellow chiffon and their colonial bouquets were of yellow carnations.

Cathy Sue Duprey, in lavender nylon, was the flower girl; Donald Duprey was the ringbearer and Gene Richard Duprey was Bible bearer.

Robert Anderson stood as best man and ushers were David Jenkins, Bobby Thornton, Larry Pilcher. Candles were lighted by Bill Geringer and Lewis Servaas.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Crusader Chapel. After a honeymoon in Las Vegas, the newlyweds will be at home at 1449 W 219th St., Torrance.
