Rams, Cool but Confident, Open '60 Training Camp Wednesday

The advance guard of the Los Angeles Rams, a contingent of 21 rookies and six veterans, officially will open the 1960 season Wednesday morning when they report to the club's training site at the University of Redlands.

This pretty liberal arts college on the edge of the desert has served as the summer home of the Rams for the past 11 years. Other than that, just about everything connected with this year's squad is different.

WATCHING THE weigh-ins with an interested eye will be Bob Waterfield, once a great Ram star himself and now in his first season as the club's head coach. He replaced Sid Gilman who resigned at the conclusion of the 1959 season.

His staff, too, is new. With the exception of line coach Don Paul who was retained from last year, none of the assistants were with the team in 1959. Hamp Pool, who served as head coach from 1952 through 1954, returns as the backfield mentor. Former Ram end Tom Fears will tutor the wingmen. Jim David, star defensive back with the Detroit Lions for the past eight seasons, will handle the secondary and Vic Lindsog will work the offensive linemen.

And overseeing the entire training camp operation will be Erloy Hirsch who replaced Pete Rozelle as general manager of the club when Rozelle was elected at NFL commissioner.

A WEEK LATER, on Wednesday, July 27, the balance of the veterans will report. This contingent numbers 26 men. Missing from the rookie roster on the 21st will be six key prospects who are scheduled to report to the College All Star squad headquarters in Chicago the same day. This group includes Dick Bass, offensive halfback from COP; Charlie Britt and Don Eller-sick, defensive halfbacks from Georgia and Washington State respectively; Penn State tackle Charlie Janerette, Jerry Stal-cup, Wisconsin's 1959 captain and All Big Ten linebacker and Carroll Dale, All American offensive end from Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

The College All-Stars will meet the Baltimore Colts at Soldier's Field on Friday night, August 12, and the players above will report to the Ram camp the following morning.

The six veterans who are scheduled to report with the rookies on Wednesday include quarterback Buddy Humphrey; linebacker John Guzik; defensive tackle John Lovetre; offensive guard Al Barry; offensive tackle Paul Dickson and linebacker Roy Wilkins.

"ALTHOUGH our squad of first year men is somewhat smaller than in the past," Waterfield said, "we feel the quality is solid. Some of our best prospects, of course, will be at the All-Star camp, but there are a number of boys reporting with the first group on Wednesday whom we expect to make strong bids for squad positions. Mike Connolly, a 250 pound center guard from Utah State comes to us with a fine college reputation and Don Klochak, a 230 pound full-back from North Carolina did a fine job in his league the past two seasons. Tappa Keggas Continue Waltz Down Shutout Lane with 13-0 Slo-Pitch Win

A year ago slo-pitch softball enthusiasts in Torrance were wondering which team was going to put a halt to the rambling Tappa Keggas' win skein.

This season the same people are wondering when and if any team will even score against the defending Southern California champions.

This week Manager Chuck Ryan's aggregation waltzed to a 13-0 win over the Redondo Post Office, adding injury to insult for the postmen by allowing just three base hits, all singles. The Keggas didn't let a base hit get through from the third inning on.

The shutout was their ninth in 10 Blue League games. In 70 innings, the team which lost only one game last year and which has a fantastic 46-1 two-year record has allowed just one run.

The Keggas are the only slo-pitch team in Torrance's three leagues to have already clinched a berth for the city playoffs.

Meanwhile action in the Service and Red Leagues this week was tighter'n the proverbial new pair of shoes with five of seven games played decided by just one run.

In the Service loop, league leadin gTorrance Elks maintained their one game edge with an 8-5 win over the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen while second place co-holders, the Merchants and Torrance Kiwanis were ringing up 2-1 and 9-3 wins, respectively.

Eddie Raphael doubled home Tom Randall in the 6th inning to insure the Merchants' triumph over the second division Optimists which is becoming one of the hottest clubs in the circuit.

The Walteria Kiwanis scored a run in the 6th to break a 2-2 tie with the Torrance Herald then cut the newsmen cold in the 7th after we loaded the bases at Torrance Park.

In the Red League, pace-setting Just For Fun came from behind a 4-0 deficit to nip St. James Church 5-4 and hold a one-game edge after eight encounters.

Scotty Maxey and Ben Hunt homered in the comeback drive for the winners.

The Inglewood Farms tallied five runs in the 7th inning then outlasted Pacific Perforating Co. for an 8-7 triumph. Ron's Landscapers were graced with a 7th inning error by Columbia ERA to outdo the steelworkers 3-2 in a tight one as both teams had just six hits each.

Reynolds in 21-0 Softball No-Hitter

The South Bay Church of God continued its winning ways in the Torrance Industrial Softball League this week with a 21-0 no-hit triumph over Aeronca at Torrance Park in an abbreviated five inning contest.

Fastballing Jim Reynolds hurled another of his shutout specialties and added sugar to the victory kettle with his first no-hit job of the season.

REYNOLDS struckout 10 of the 16 men he faced. He lost his "perfect game" bid with two out in the 5th when he hit a batter.

Only five Aeronca hitters managed to hit the ball in fair territory, all but one being on the ground.

Meanwhile, the Churchmen were slugging 11 safeties, including three each by Lloyd Smyers and Tak Aoki. One of Smyers' blasts was a third inning home run.

In other Industrial action, the Independent Builders remained in a two-team tie for the league lead with a win the easy way — via a forfeit from Lucy's Lambs.

BILL SNEEDON and Paul Mason had two hits each to lead Ryan Aeros to a 7-4 victory over Maury's Cafe, although Jerry Garver and Deb Reeder had three hits apiece for the losers.

Border Markets scored three times in the first inning on no hits then blew its margin to the Torrance Post Office, 6-3, as Jerry Duval bailed out John Sherfey from the opening round hassle and went on to chuck one-hit ball for four innings before the game was called because of the lateness of the hour at Torrance Park.

Nation's Number One Cyclist to Race in Ascot Championship Duel

Southland racing fans get their big opportunity to see the country's best motorcycle racers perform this week when a huge field competes in the national 8-mile championship Saturday night at Gardena's Ascot Stadium. This will be a double-barreled week for bike fanatics since the regular Friday show will also be held, featuring the novice aces and time trials for the amateur-expert riders.

HEADING THE competent out-of-state entries is the nation's number one cyclist, Carroll Resweber from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who has already won the national 5 and 10 mile championships this season.

The 24-year-old transplanted Texan, two-time grand national titlist, took three of the ten national races last year and in so doing registered the highest championship point total ever recorded by the American Motorcycle Association.

When Resweber took the 5-mile title at Hammond, Indiana, it marked his 4th straight crown at that distance. All told, Resweber has won a total of 10 national championship races.

CHALLENGING the slim speed-happy Resweber will be a host of top racers, including little Sammy (Flying Flea) Tanner of Gardena, the defending champion in this 8-three-time grand national champ from San Jose; Everett Brashear, Beaumont, Texas; a former 8-mile national championship winner; Al Gunter of Los Angeles; another 8-mile champion and current scourge of the fast Ascot half-mile track.

Corvette Sports Cars in 200 Mile Race on Sunday

Sports car rallyists throughout the Southland are making last minute preparations this week for the "Turismo de Corvette III" Rally to be run today.
 Rallyists will start the 200-mile trek from the Alhambra Shopping Center on Valley Blvd. at 7 a.m.
 Entry fee is $4.00 per car and applications may be picked up at the starting line.

IN THE 6TH WEEK of qualifying which ended in the wee Monday morning hours, six of the 15 weekly high awards were topped by Bakersfield kегlers. Each of the high series winners will receive $100.

In the high game department, worth $50, John Denney of Bakersfield Bowling Academy blasted a 288 dandy to lead the men's Class 2, and Jerry Mayfield turned in a sparkling 258 at Westchester to pace the men's Class 4.

Top series of the week was kегled by Wally Potter in the men's Class 2 who shellacked the lanes at Lakewood Bowl for games of 289, 208 and 222 for a 719 winner. Rose Butcher in women's Class 2 topped the fair lassies with a 258 high game at Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance.

WITH SIX WEEKS of qualifying now a matter of record, more than $30,000 has been awarded to men and women kегlers of all averages. With six weeks remaining, bowlers are reminded they may qualify anytime during the week, Saturday and Sunday included, at any of the participating houses who have joined to present this rich classic.

The bouts will originate in Minneapolis Auditorium, Minneapolis, Minn. Both individual contests and tag-team action will be presented for Southern California sport fans.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day

The $1,250,000 Catch

What kind of man spends $1,250,000 for a race horse? Well, for one thing, he's the kind of man who, with such Princeton Tigers as Constable others charging down on him, would elect to field a put instead of calling for a fair catch. Joseph L. Arnold did both. He gambled on the kick while starring as quarterback with Washington and Lee in 1934, and he heads the syndicate that recently bought Ballyache for a million and a quarter.

Since his purchase, the beaten Kentucky Derby favorite made amend by winning the Preakness and the Jersey Derby plus a prep for the Preakness which were worth $202,275 to his new owners.

Arnold, 40-year-old Lexington, Kentucky, attorney, never had any regrets about choosing to run with the Princeton kick. "Everything I was doing that day was working out and the thought never entered my head to play it "safe." As it turned out, Princeton recov-ered his fumble, went on to a touchdown and won over the Generals by 13 to 12.

While Ballyache may not win back his purchase price on the track, (only three horses, Round Table, Nashua, and Citation, have won over $1,000,000) he is certainly no fumble and, considering his potential as a stallion, there is perhaps no limit to his value.
