

Judges Select San Pedro Phone Girl for Promotion

A service representative for the San Pedro business office of the Pacific Telephone was selected as the San Pedro District Princess Tuesday as a prelude to a company program to launch its new Princess telephone about Aug. 1.

MISS MARCIA Hylton, who was one of eight finalists in the contest to select the Princess, was selected by a committee of judges that included Torrance Mayor Albert Isen, Robert Wilcox of Lomita, Ed Defenbaugh of Wilmington, Bynner Martin of San Pedro, and Reid Bundy, managing editor of the HERALD.

Assemblyman Vincent Thomas of San Pedro, who represents the 68th Assembly District in the California Legislature, crowned Miss Hylton after her selection at a luncheon at the Tasman Sea Tuesday.

SELECTED AS A runner up to the Princess by the panel of judges was Miss Nancy Froude, also a service representative at the San Pedro business office of Pacific Telephone.

As the District Princess, Miss

Hylton will visit company locations during regular work hours to demonstrate the new telephone to employees.

Company officials described the new Princess telephone as being more compact than conventional phones, and said it was designed to fit in many home locations where space is at a premium.
