

PARK ATTRACTION . . . Children gathered at Sea-Aire Park yesterday put the new Paul Salzberg concrete statue to its intended use immediately following formal dedication ceremonies. Created by Salzberg, widely known Torrance sculptor, the 700-pound western figure is designed by the artist to provide climbing space for children. (Herald Photo)

Carson Chamber Rabies Clinic Set

The Carson Chamber of Commerce will sponsor two rabies clinics in cooperation with the Villa Market and the Border Market. Animals will be vaccinated Thursday, July 28, at either the Villa or the Border Markets. A charge of $1.50 per animal will be made. The Villa Market is located at 23011 S. Avalon Blvd., and the Border Market at 643 E. 223rd St. Times for the clinic are from 7 to 9 p.m.

Boy Scout Troop 211

Billy Wassenberg, 2105 Middlebrook Rd., and John Faulkner, 2231 W. 236th Pl., were among the Torrance boys who left Wednesday afternoon by plane for the Jamboree site. They will return early next week.

If You Are A Newcomer to Torrance Call

DOROTHY MILLER TE 3-7805

for a visit from Welcome Wagon

4 1/2% current rate per annum Paid Quarterly

- accounts opened by the 10th earn from the 1st
- each account insured to $10,000
- save a trip — save by mail

Assets Over $60,000,000

Southwest Savings AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

INGLEWOOD TORRANCE
2700 W. Manchester — at 6th Ave. 1603 Cravens — at Marcolina
PLeasant 3-2164 FAirfax 8-5111

King Named To Key Post

Assemblyman William A. Munnell, Democratic State Chairman, today announced appointment of two 17th Congressional District Democrats to key committee posts of the party's state convention and Democrat State Central Committee meeting to be held in Sacramento, July 30-31.

Congressman Cecil King will serve on the Platform Committee for the convention. Charles Sohner, Democrat candidate for the State Assembly from the 46th Assembly District will be on the Credentials Committee.

Purpose of the biennial sessions is election of party officers and adoption of a state platform.

In announcing the appointments, Munnell praised King and Sohner for their outstanding contributions to Democrat activities.

. . . Kelly

(Continued from Page 1)

closest friend. The reunion was a happy one.

OTHERS WHO joined forces to help this disabled veteran, whose heart condition makes it impossible for him to work, are:

Mr. and Mrs. DeMente, $10; Virginia Herbert, 10; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Seals, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stearns, 5; Darlene Meeker, $2; HERALD readers, $19; Torrance HERALD staff, $23; and additional groceries from the neighbors of 234th St. and 234th Pl.

THE LONG BEACH Lions Club is negotiating a loan to the Kellys through the efforts of James Carraghan, of Rolling Hills; and the First Christian Church of Torrance loaned the family $100 to help them pay their overdue rent and furniture loan payment.

Mrs. John Sheahan, 2713 W. Carson, has contacted Congressman Cecil R. King, asking him to expedite efforts of the Veterans Administration in getting the much needed checks to Frank Kelley.

New Office For Better-Bilt Homes Open

Superior Construction Co., Inc., a division of Better-Bilt Homes, opened a second South Bay office Friday. The new office and model home, located at 223rd and Figueroa Sts., will serve the eastern part of the Bay area. Superior Construction Co. specializes in building on-the-lot homes.

The new office will supplement the firm's Lawndale office in serving the Torrance, Lomita, San Pedro, Dominguez, Harbor City, Wilmington, Compton and Long Beach communities. It will be staffed with experienced building consultants and construction specialists.

Grand opening ceremonies are slated for July 31, according to Joseph B. Waddle, general manager of the firm. The opening of the new office will enable the parent firm to devote its attention to the demand for homes in the western section of the South Bay.

Northrop Awarded Navy Contracts

Northrop Corp. has been awarded contracts totaling $28,000,000 by the Navy, according to company spokesmen. The contracts are for research and development of electronic components for the Polaris Fleet Ballistic Missile system.

The work is being done by the Northronics Division of the firm and includes development of automatic checkout systems gyroscopes, type 11 periscopes and radiometric sextants for the Polaris Submarines.

CITED . . . T-Sgt. Harry Fulks, son of Mrs. Julia Fulks, 20619 Raymond St., recently received the Air Force Commendation Medal at the Harlingen Air Force Base, Texas. The medal was presented by Capt. Harry Schaaf, commander of the base Section Air Group, for duties performed as NCO in charge of Drills and Ceremonies at Lackland AFB, Tex. (USAF Photo)

Marianist Open House Slated For Sunday

Open House for the Marianists will be held Sunday, July 31st, at Chaminade High School, 2500 Beverly Drive, Los Angeles, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Among the Brothers who will be receiving their families, relatives and friends are three from Torrance: Brother John A. McNeil, S.M.; Brother James Orsini, S.M.; and Brother Lawrence Perry, S.M.

The Marianist League Mothers will serve refreshments and a cordial welcome is extended to all who know the local Marianist Brothers.

Midway Closes Today, Rodeo Next Weekend

This afternoon will be the last day that the Rancho Days midway booths will be open. The carnival midway will open at 1 p.m.

The RCA Rodeo, which will wind up the 1960 Rancho Days fete, will be held next weekend. Performances are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets for the rodeo can be obtained from the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, the Torrance Mounted Police, or at the gate.

WIN AWARD . . . Officials of Armco Steel Corporation and The National Supply Company were song guests when the Armco "Iron Man" was presented to the Torrance plant of National Supply. In the picture, from left, are R. S. Gruver, Middletown, Ohio, administrative vice president, personal and public relations, for Armco; E. G. Unrath, Pittsburgh, vice president of National Supply, and J. D. Spaulding, works manager of the Torrance plant. The sculpture of the "Iron Man", shown in front, signifies the best safety record made during the previous year by any Armco plant.

BOYS STATE . . . Bill Steinwachs, South High Senior, recently returned from a week in Sacramento where he attended the annual Boys State conclave as a representative of the South Bay Post 170 of the American Legion. Boys State is held annually to acquaint boys with the workings of the state government. (Herald Photo)

WORK DISPLAYED . . . Five of the six El Camino College drafting students whose work was displayed during the past month prepare to discuss the work with their instructor T. A. Thomas. The exhibit of technical illustrations, appearing at the Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park, featured the work of Bob Upton and (left to right) George Scherf, Ron Downing, Frank Hurst, Lee Gibbons, and John Dunfee.

B of A Branch Has Open House

A large throng turned out to welcome the Bank of America's Main and Carson branch to the South Bay community Thursday evening when the branch office held an open house.

The music of the Los Caballeros Youth Band, the collection of internationally known coin collector Cyrus Phillips, a Gold Rush contest, and door prizes provided the public with a pleasant evening. Refreshments were served.

The traditional gold key ceremony opened the proceedings as Vice President Ralph E. Windsor from the bank's Los Angeles Headquarters' executive staff presented the key to Branch Manager Richard E. Ogle. Burton Chace, county supervisor, and John Calas, president of the Carson Chamber of Commerce, also took part in the ceremony.

NEW BUS TERMINAL . . . City and business leaders gathered Thursday morning to open formally the new bus terminal at El Prado and Torrance Blvd. From the left are Mayor Albert Isen, Councilman J. A. Beasley, Chamber of Commerce President R. S. "Dick" Pyle, Downtown Businessman's President Abe Robinson, and Councilman Nick Drale. (Herald Photo)

BANK OPENED . . . Officiating at opening ceremonies for the new Carson-Main Branch of the Bank of America Thursday evening were (from left) Supervisor Burton W. Chace; B of A Vice President Ralph E. Windsor; John Calas, president of the Carson Chamber of Commerce; and Richard E. Ogle, manager of the new branch.

Obituaries

ELLSWORTH STANLEY JONES

Funeral services for Ellsworth S. Jones, 69, were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in the Pierce Brothers Little Church Around the Corner. Jones died July 19 at the UCLA medical center. Survivors included the widow Myrtle Jones, 22335 S. Vermont; two daughters, Eleanor Angernier and Margaret Priest; and two sons, Alvin and Howard Jones. Interment was in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

GRACE HARRIETT ELLIOTT

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 a.m. for Grace Harriett Elliott, 58, who died July 21 at a local hospital. Halverson-Leavell Mortuary is in charge of arrangements and the Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman of the First Methodist Church will officiate. Interment will be in Roosevelt Memorial Park. Survivors include the widow, Dee Elliott, 1621 W. 227th St., a brother, Ted McCaskey, of Hollywood; a sister, Mrs. Isabelle Willis, Los Angeles; and a nephew, Jerry Robbins, Colfax, Calif.

1. Keep good company or none.
2. Never be idle.
3. If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.
4. Always speak the truth.
5. If anyone speaks evil of you, let your life be so that none will believe him.

WALT WELCH
TOWNE AND COUNTRIE REALTY
25813 Narbonne, Lomita — DA 6-2476

SELL—BUY—RENT CLASSIFIED . . . FA 8-4000

LOCHMANN FARMS MILK
DRIVE-IN DAIRY
28000 S. WESTERN AVE., SAN PEDRO
20 1/2 Ct.
TE 3-8833