

Bonnie Has A Birthday

Bonnie Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dalton, 2804 Sonoma celebrated her 13th birthday with a slumber party at her home.

A hot dog supper with all the trimmings was enjoyed by the girls who then spent the night. In the morning, Mrs. Dalton served a breakfast for the birthday guests.

Card Party

St. Margaret Mary Altar society will hold its monthly card party this evening at 8 p.m. in the church hall, 255th and Eshelman Sts., in Lomita. Members of the St. Francis Guild will be hostesses.

Helping Bonnie celebrate the occasion were Marsha Mott, Lynette Campazzi, Susan Klages, Jill, Judy and Colleen O'Hara, Elaine Steel, Susan Steenback, Nancy McCall, Pat Parvis, Shannon Janasick and Jeannie Giaquito.

Juniors Participate In 'Rancho Days'

Continuing in the tradition of the past three years, the Torrance Junior Woman's club has again demonstrated its interest in civic affairs by participation in the Torrance Rancho Days celebration. Juniors have manned a "Nickel Pitch" booth, with prizes going to those whose nickels land on one of the plates spaced within the booth. Twenty-five per cent of the profit obtained will go toward the Torrance Rose Parade float, with the remaining profit aiding the Juniors in their numerous philanthropies.

Participating in the project were Mmes. Charles W. Bennett, chairman, A. R. Felando, Jr., R. K. Petrat, Gerson A. Jacobson, B. R. McRee, T. J. Burchfield, Edward Plehal, C. L. Briner, John A. Hall, Elgin E. Logsdon, Richard Gazeley, Robert Davis, Willard E. Irwin, J. R. Curtin, W. E. Starr, John P. Schwartz, Douglas Horlander, W. H. Gardner, C. H. Turner, Richard Dorothy, J. A. (Continued from Page 13) Richard Barrett and Vernon Rose.

Mrs. Eleanor Hanes, organist, played the wedding marches. She also accompanied Robert Kregg and Mrs. Roy Whittum who sang "Ich Liebe Dich," "Eternally," and "A Wedding Prayer."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall. Mrs. LeRoy Aldershof was in charge of the guest book. Representing the bridegroom's family in the receiving line was his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osborne of Lomita. His parents were unable to attend the wedding.

The new Mrs. Osborne was graduated from Torrance High school, Azusa college and received her degree from Pepperdine. Her husband received his early education in Oregon and is now a student at El Camino.

The couple will establish a home in this area.

Pilot Delegates Attend 39th Annual Convention

Mrs. John A. Whittington, president of the Pilot Club of Torrance, was selected official delegate to the 39th annual convention of Pilot Club International in session at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco, July 24-28. Mrs. Whittington is a member of the committee on information and also will serve as a hostess during the entire convention.

Miss Mae Sleep, a director of the Pilot Club of Torrance and District Secretary, was chosen as alternate delegate.

Mrs. Joseph A. DeJaifre, Governor of District 18 of Pilot International and a member of the Torrance club, will serve as chairman of the hostess committee for the convention. At the opening of the business session on Monday, July 25, Mrs. DeJaifre will give the welcoming address to all Pilots and Co-Pilots attending the convention. On Thursday morning, July 28, the California Pilots met with Pilots from Canada and Louisiana for breakfast and Mrs. DeJaifre again extended a welcome to the Pilots in attendance.

At the opening reception on Sunday night, the California Pilots, who served as hostesses, were wearing costumes typical of the Gay Nineties—which is symbolic of San Francisco during that era.

Dr. Lynne C. Monroe, professor of the University of California's department of industrial arts, was the keynote speaker for the convention. He will speak on "Silken Purse from Sov's Ears." Dr. Monroe is active in a variety of fields in addition to education—particularly Kiwanis International.

To focus attention on Pilot's interest in safety, a special safety program will be presented.

Mrs. Jean Conacher, of Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, is convention chairman. Mrs. Oneita K. Swain, of San Jose, and Mrs. Helen Hoffman, of Washington, D.C., are vice chairmen.

Mrs. Georgina Hallena, of Washington, D.C., president of Pilot International, will preside over the convention. She will be succeeded as president on the final day of the session by Mrs. Robbie Burnham of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Pilot International is one of five international classified service organizations for executive business and professional women, which has more than 400 clubs and nearly 12,000 members in the United States, Canada, England, France, Bermuda and Japan.

A Surprise Stork Shower

Mrs. Robert Ouellette was the honoree at a surprise baby shower given last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Lou Zimmerman at her home, 616 Pine Dr.

The hostess used a pink, white and blue color theme in decorating the party rooms. A beautiful cake in the party colors centered the dining table.

Several games were played, after which the honoree opened her gifts. The hostess served sherbet, punch, coffee and cake.

Bringing gifts for the expected baby were Mmes. Janet Robinson, Kay Madigan, Betty Madigan, Georgia Ragan, Ida Gowin, Nellie Olson, Archeon Gilmer, Eileen Holt, Frances Bynum, Lorraine Sherman, Jo Austin, Ida Brown; and Miss Laura Zimmerman.

Sending gifts were Mmes. Delores Watson, Judy Sanders, Marilyn Phillips, Betty Longwell, and Cleo McDonald.

Mr., Mrs. Johan Eliassen Now at Home in Torrance

Mr. and Mrs. Johan K. Eliassen are now at home at 22803 Marjorie Ave. following a honeymoon in Carmel and Yosemite. They were married June 18 in a formal wedding at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance with the Rev. William Roleder officiating. Nuptial music was provided by Roy Dobrick, organist. Mrs. Janice Bradley sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Arne Moe was her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Lonnie Freese, another sister, was the bridesmaid. They both wore lavender net over taffeta and carried baby orchids and white carnations. A tiara held her veil and she carried two white orchids atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Arne Moe stood as best man and ushers were Lonnie and Ronald Freese.

A reception was held in the Fireside room at the church where Mrs. Shirley Timar registered the guests.

Lomita OES

New members were welcomed by the Lomita Eastern Star at its stated meeting last Friday evening. They were Grace Elizabeth and Kenneth Rohar, Lillie Mae and Emmett A. Rohar and Dora Margaret Holt.

Wilson Jones, worthy patron, called the meeting to order and the welcome was given by Tec Coggins.

Wanda Coggins, worthy matron, presided. Observing "Courtesy Night," the worthy matron introduced Ethel Dowling, past matron and Jack Graham, past patron, who presided.

Tina Johnson and her committee served refreshments. There will be no chapter meeting during August.

Eta Mu At Workshop

Eta Mu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha recently attended the business meeting of their sister chapter Eta Kappa. Following the business session a workshop was presented by Mira Costa Council officers, Audrey Stewart, president, and Sylvia Noble, president, of Mira Costa council.

The workshop consisted of reports on social, rushing, chapter procedure, philanthropic, educational and ways and means. A discussion followed.

Attending the meeting for Eta Mu were Virginia Bry, Marguerite Duke, Elizabeth Launer and Laura Pesola.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Perks, 3738 W. 181st St., had as their dinner guests Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cunningham.
