

P T A ACTIVITIES

Riviera

Mrs. Leo Bereda, president of the Riviera PTA, with board members, Mrs. Eugene Lexton and Mrs. Charles Merlain, has been attending the Parent Information course sponsored by Torrance Council PTA at Madrona school.

Mrs. C. A. Wiggins, director of communications for the 33rd district spoke on PTA policy and organization. The duty of local membership to serve the welfare of its neighborhood and promote parent education is a challenge emphasized by Mrs. Wiggins in lectures throughout Los Angeles county.

The Torrance Council is active throughout the year sponsoring council and district leaders for study groups. Acting as a conference body for 32 local associations, the council provides instruction and information to stimulate community interest in child welfare and the needs of the schools through PTA courses and workshops covering all PTA activities.

Fern-Greenwood

A special board meeting of the Fern-Greenwood PTA was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Lynn on July 19 with the president, Mrs. G. W. Ackerman, presiding.

Plans were discussed to remind all voters of the proposed OVERRIDE tax election on Oct. 11.

The program chairman, Mrs. Bert Lynn, announced that the theme of the program for the coming year will be "The Open Doors."

Tentative plans were made for the ice cream social to be held in September as the first association meeting of Fern-Greenwood Ave. PTA.

There will be special meeting of the Budget and Finance and Membership committees in the near future.

Madrona

It's fun time again at the Madrona Street School! At a recent Madrona PTA board meeting, a big carnival was planned for Oct. 1, 1960. Dozens of "Fun Booths" for both young and old will be set up along the midway. In addition to the colorful game booths loaded with prizes, there will be cotton candy, popcorn, food concessions, big rides and little rides. Come one, come all and enjoy the fun from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. There will be more clowns than you can shake a balloon at in a typical carnival atmosphere.

The Madrona PTA adopted the theme "Treasure Chest of Ideas and Ideals" for 1960-61 and starts off at the October 6th meeting with "Treasure of Understanding."

Maryrose Roach Becomes Bride of Robert McNair

Miss Maryrose Roach, daughter of Mrs. Edward C. Roach, 24435 Neece Ave., WALTERIA, was a lovely bride as she walked down the aisle of the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes on the arm of her brother, John F. Day, to plight her marriage vows with Robert W. McNair, 3792 Newton St., WALTERIA. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Blanche McNair of Los Angeles.

For her wedding, which took place on June 18, the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace detailed with a round neckline and bracelet sleeves embroidered with seed pearls. The ballerina length skirt was over hoops. A lace crown studded with pearls held the illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of elf roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Henry Sinclair was the matron of honor. She was gowned in an aqua lace sheath and carried pink elf roses and stephanotis.

John J. Fakkeldij stood as best man and Henry Sinclair was usher.

Dr. Phillip Gregory officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The 125 guests were entertained at a reception on the church terrace where tables were decorated with pink and white roses.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Colorado and New Mexico and are now at home in WALTERIA.

The bride was graduated from Indiana University and her husband received his engineering degree from the University of California.
