Edison Co. Manager on C of C Board

The Board of Directors of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce unanimously approved the appointment of William Greenawalt, local manager of the Southern California Edison Co., as a director of the organization at their last regular board meeting, according to an announcement by President William E. Shawger.

Greenawalt was born 47 years ago in Manor, Penn. He graduated from Geneva College, majoring in Business Administration. An employee of the Southern California Edison Co. since 1938, he has been manager of the local office for two years. He, his wife, Jane, and two children reside in Compton.

George Naylor, former owner of Torrance Hardware, created the vacancy by resigning upon his retirement from the hardware business. He served as a director of the Chamber since January 1958 as a representative of the Retail Merchants.

Harbor Area Nurses Plan Annual Meet

The Harbor Area Nurses' Assn., District 21 of the California Nurses' Assn., will hold its annual dinner meeting on Wednesday, May 10, 7:30 p.m. at 4401 E. Pacific Coast Hwy., Long Beach.

The new officers for the coming year will be installed by the former president of the District and Woman of the Year in San Pedro, Miss Louise Siegrist.

Reservations are to be made by Friday, May 5 with Alice Skaanes, 861 W. Santa Cruz St., San Pedro.

GIFT FOR CITY ... Stanley Slotkin, businessman and philanthropist, shows page from 500-year-old Bible which he presented to the city this week. The page, with letters illuminated in gold and blue, was acquired by Slotkin from a cathedral in Valencia, Spain. He said the page had been valued at $1000.
