CLOSED MONDAY

OPENED FOR TOUR . . . This very modern split level residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dimitriou will be one of the homes to be opened on the St. Francis Episcopal Church Tour Friday and Saturday. In this Chinese Modern house, the formality of luxurious brocades and shot-silks, and the very efficient integration of the informal indoor living areas with the closely adjacent swimming pool, are typically California living at its finest.

Open Air Art Exhibit
Homes Tour Slated For This Weekend

Episcopal Women of the St. Francis Church in Palos Verdes will stage their 12th annual Homes Tour Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Fred A. Brand is general chairman of this year's event. Seven outstanding homes on the Peninsula will be opened for persons making the tour. Pink arrows will outline the tour route and men wearing pink helmets will be on hand to direct tourists.

The tour will end at the St. Francis church where tea will be served.

An added attraction will be the outdoor art exhibit to be staged by the Palos Verdes Painters under the shade trees in Malaga Cove, Palos Verdes Plaza. Each artist will exhibit scenes of the Peninsula and South Bay under colorful umbrellas. Many of the paintings will be offered for sale. Members of the Painters group will serve as hostesses.

Homes, all depicting a variety of architecture, to be opened for the tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hancock, 260 Palos Verdes Dr. West; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dimitriou, 1620 Montemar, Palos Verdes; Judge and Mrs. Donald Armstrong, 812 Via Conejo, Palos Verdes; Mrs. Dorothy Dudley, 2433 Via Campesina, Palos Verdes; Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Klose, 10 Williamsburg Lane, Rolling Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Evan K. Shaw, 24 Portuguese Bend, Rolling Hills; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Wright, 4611 Marioma Dr., Rolling Hills.

The homes will be open from noon until 5 p.m. both days. Anyone wishing tickets or further information may call Mrs. John Bacon, 1660 Espinosa Circle, ticket chairman.

Square Dance Club Installs

Maverick Square Dance club installed new officers at a dinner meeting last Friday evening at the Torrance Woman's club, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Floyd Phillips was installed as president and Gene Weems, vice president. Approximately 150 members and guests attended the meeting.

The club meets every Friday night at the Woman's clubhouse. Regular caller is Noble Spees. Visitors are always welcome.

May Queen To Reign At Event

A queen will be crowned to reign over the festivities when Centinela Valley Reserve Officers' Association Ladies' Clubs hold their "May Queen Luncheon" on May 6 at the home of club president Mrs. Allan Affleck, 26196 Fond du Lac Rd., Rolling Hills.

Members and their guests will enjoy a delicious buffet luncheon followed by an afternoon of bridge, and lovely door prizes are also included in the price of the ticket. Proceeds from this special fund-raising event will go toward club projects which include helping both service centers and veterans.

The committee in charge of planning and reservations includes Mmes. Affleck, M. M. Packer of Inglewood, Elmer Harris, B. Hession, and William Boell, all of Torrance.

entire wedding will be fashioned of the early 1900 era. The attendants' gowns will be copies of those worn by the bridesmaids in her grandmother's wedding. Authentically carrying out the 1906 fashions, the couple will ride in a horsedrawn buggy from the Palos Verdes church to the bride's home for the reception.

On May 7, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will entertain 150 long time friends of both families at a cocktail hour at their home to honor the couple.
