

Manhattan AAUW To Install New Officers

Officers of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women who were elected at the April meeting will be installed on Monday, May 8, at the Cockatoo Inn Restaurant, 4334 W. Imperial Highway, Inglewood.

Mrs. Richard J. Rector of Hollywood Riviera has been elected president for 1961-62. Other officers elected include Mrs. Robert Rupkey, first vice president; Mrs. Michael N. Lesh, second vice president; Mrs. Adrian L. Brown, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert H. White, recording secretary, and Mrs. Leland Partridge, treasurer.

Mrs. Rector has served as newsletter chairman of the branch this year and has served as public relations chairman last year.

Born in Peru, Miss Rector spent her early years in Venezuela. She attended school in the United States and received her degree from Keuka College, Keuka Park, New York.

Before her marriage she was a reporter for the Syracuse Post Standard and a secretary for the Gulf Oil in Venezuela.

Miss Antoinette Ransom, second vice president of the State AAUW, will be the installing officer and speaker for the evening. She will speak on "The College Women As a Community Asset."

Miss Ransom, a graduate of Pomona College, has held the following State Division offices: State Division Bulletin Editor, Member of the Program Committee and Membership Committee Committee. She has been president, second vice president, treasurer and director of the Los Angeles branch.

Dinner reservations must be made prior to May 5, and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Dale Wilkins or Mrs. Philip Korman.

A social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Auxiliary To Nominate

Nomination of officers for 1962 will be the main item on the agenda at the May business meeting of the Harbor View Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Assn. slated for this evening at 8 p.m. Mrs. William Davis will conduct the meeting to be held in Ula-brand Hall, 1125 S. Gaffey St., San Pedro.

Members of the board of directors met with Mrs. Earl Rush in her San Pedro home on May 2.

Montgomery Luncheon Slated May 11

Bishop Montgomery High School announces that plans are well under way for their long anticipated luncheon on Ascension Thursday, May 11. The menu consists of ricotta cheese dip, deviled eggs, barbecued rice and frank casserole, green salad with French dressing, rolls, coffee, tea, and assorted fruit pies.

Lunch will be served from noon to 2 p.m. in the KC hall, 214 Avenue I, Redondo Beach. Tickets may be purchased from the luncheon chairman, Mrs. John Trainer, 14618 Dublin St., Gardena.

A large number of door prizes will be given away, and diners will be serenaded by Accordionist George Mercer of Torrance. George is the proud owner of numerous state awards for his accordion and piano playing.

Bishop Montgomery's next regular meeting will be held on May 8 at 8 p.m. Mothers will meet in the school library with Rev. Michael McNulty, school principal, and fathers will meet in Room 213 with Rev. Eugene Buhr, school vice principal. Results of Bishop Montgomery's April Fiesta will be discussed at both meetings, and election of officers for the next school year will take place.

Muu Muu Fashions

Chapter Announces Hope Benefit May 10

South Bay Chapter of City of Hope will present Ruth Rogers, travel and fashion consultant for Matson Lines of San Francisco, at a dessert fashion show at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owen, 26441 Shady Vista Rd., in Rolling Hills.

The affair, with dessert to be served at 2:30 p.m., has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 10. There will be entertainment and door prizes.

Miss Rogers will talk about Hawaii cruise wear, discussing basic travel requirements. She regularly makes personal appearances before women's groups, clubs and universities across the nation. When not "on the road," Miss Rogers is usually in Honolulu buying new clothes or on one of Matson's four luxury liners as hostess and fashion commentator.

Hawaiian music will be played by Wilene Taylor and Phil LaLogia of the "Redondo Sharps."

Reservations may be made for the event by calling Mmes. J. Russeal Shea, Norman Owen or Robert Stone.

Fellowship Day May 5
