

Air Force Seeks Medical Aides, Recruiter Says

Master Sergeant James P. LeFevre, local Air Force recruiter, announced today that the Air Force is facing a rising demand for qualified applicants to enter the Air Force Medical Specialists Corps.

Sergeant LeFevre emphasized the fact that Occupational Therapists, Physical Therapists and Dietitians all are needed and, upon acceptance are commissioned in grade commensurate with age, education and professional experience. Qualified applicants enter active duty in their commissioned grades and enjoy the same pay and benefits as other Air Force officers of equal grade.

AIR FORCE medical specialists work with the most modern equipment available in an atmosphere that is thoroughly professional. A variety of duty assignments are available, both in the United States and overseas, offering an excellent opportunity for travel.

Educational requirements for Occupational and Physical Therapists are a bachelor's degree and a certificate showing completion of an Occupational or Physical Therapy course. Dietitians must possess a bachelor's degree and a certificate showing completion of Dietetic Internship.

Additional information concerning the Medical Specialists Program may be obtained from Sergeant LeFevre by phoning FAirfax 8-1404 or by visiting the Air Force Recruiting office at 1319 1/2 Sartori Ave.
