

KEN CRAMER
Cast in Opera

Former Local Boy Has Role In SF Opera

A former Torrance boy, Ken Cramer, 13, now living in Walnut Creek, Calif., has been selected to sing in Mozart's opera, "The Magic Flute," to be presented in the San Francisco Opera House May 15 and 16. He also appeared in the second act of "La Boheme" last Friday.

Ken, a member of the San Francisco Boys' Chorus, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cramer, who made their home in WALTERIA for a number of years. His father was chairman of the city's Recreation Commission, and the family was active in music with youth and adults at the WALTERIA Community Methodist Church. They lived in WALTERIA from 1950 to 1958.

The Boys' Chorus trains under the direction of Madi Bacon, former head of music extension for the University of California. In his assignment with the opera, Ken has been selected to sing one of the three spirits in "The Magic Flute."

The chorus presents concerts in the Bay area and have toured California, has sung for the King and Queen of Denmark, and on television.

Established Jan. 1, 1914
