YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

"She Sets the Tempo . . ."

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 27 and have been married for 10 years. This last year I've become bored with my husband, housework and marriage in general. I've taken self-improvement courses, become active in civic affairs and have even tried to spend more time with my children, but nothing helps. I feel a need for excitement. Is this natural or is it a danger signal? Don't you feel it's as much a husband's place to keep his wife interested? (Continued on page 16)
