

Motorcycles Slated for Ascot During Memorial Weekend

Leading motorcycle racers of the Pacific Coast hit a double-header schedule over Memorial Day weekend at Ascot Park with the weekly 16-event half-mile track program Friday night along with the first night steeplechase in four years Monday night.

Friday night's races at the 183rd and Vermont speed center headline the battle of the "Big Four." Neil Keen of Pasadena, Al Gunter and Stu Morley of Los Angeles and Jack O'Brien of Santa Monica. These BSA mounted riders have been cleaning up since the opening program, April 7. Sammy Tanner of Bellflower, closing in every week, contends he'll break up the quartet Friday night!

Racing starts at 8:30 o'clock, one-lap qualifying at 7.

DICK Dorresteyn of San Pedro is the rider to beat in the spectacular steeplechase Monday night when he leads the pack around the twisting infield course and over the hair-raising 10-foot barrier.

The upstart is the nation's No. 1 steeplechaser and will be shooting for his fifth 1961 victory. He has won 11 of 13 events in daylight competition, and leads Dick Hammer of Lakewood by 67 points in expert class standings.

ALONG WITH Hammer the field against Dorresteyn includes such daredevils as Joe Leonard, San Jose; Jim Goldsmith, Long Beach; Dave Bosstrom, Culver City, and Ed Kretz, Monterey Park.

Duane Shadley and Dale Norlund are the big guns in the novice division. Shadley still leads, but his margin has been cut to five points.

Racing Monday evening, night before Memorial Day, starts at 8:30, qualifying at 7.

Boy Hunted Who Failed To Sign-up

Torrance's Babe Ruth Little League officials are looking for Charles Boswell. When he registered for the league, he neglected to put down an address or telephone number, and now a opening has appeared for him on the Mountains.

Boswell is encouraged to call Foss Kelly at FA 8-2963. Due to the loss of an active player, the coach of the Mountains is looking for Boswell in order to plug the gap by the departing player.

Californian at Hollypark

First of Hollywood Park's four $100,000 classics, The Californian will be presented for its eighth running Saturday and will headline a busy week of stakes activity starting Tuesday.

The Californian will mark the long-awaited comeback of Rex Ellsworth's sensational Prove It, the flashy Endeavour II colt who dominated the western winter racing season at Santa Anita by winning two hundred-granders, the Handicap and the Maturity.

While Prove It and such other handicap stars as T.V. Lark, Prince Blessed, Grey Eagle, Finnegan, First Balcony, Sea Orbit and possibly the eastern spring champ, April Skies, are waiting The Californian, Hollypark thoroughbred fans will be treated to a pair of early-week stakes presentations, the $15,000 added Sequoia Handicap for older fillies and mares on Tuesday and the $15,000 added Cabrillo Stakes for two-year-old California-bred colts and geldings on Thursday.

THE SIX-furlong Sequoia is expected to attract a stellar field of speedy distaffers including Linita, Bitter Feud and such other stout contenders as Nascania, Sweet June, Sue III, Solid Thought, Taboo and Gigi 2nd.

The Cabrillo, a five-furlong event which will give colts and geldings their first stakes opportunity of the year, also is expected to draw a banner lineup. Doc Jocoy, Private World, Byk and Tres, all good winners this season, will tangle with a host of potential juvenile stars.

IN THE CALIFORNIAN, Prove It will make his first start since taking a quarter length in 2:00 flat. That victory boosted the California-bred star's winter earnings to $232,770 which still ranks him as the top money-winner for 1961 in the handicap division.

T. V. Lark who showed good form in his first two starts of the season, will seek his sixth $100,000 win in the Californian and a chance to even his score with Prove It who defeated him in the Maturity.

The Kerr Stables twosome of Prince Blessed and Grey Eagle were two-three in the Maturity, while American Comet, New Policy and Frist Balcony all accounted for Santa Anita stakes wins and must be considered dangerous cotenders.

Card Nine Loses Heartbreaker

Tallying four times on only one hit, the White Sox shut-out the Cards, 4 to 0 in Thursday's Central Pony League action.

Tommy Harris got the only Sox hit of the evening. It was a real heart-breaker to lose for Bill Valles, but his mates committed a rash of errors to saddle him with a one-hit loss.

Tommy Garrison struck out 14 Cards while allowing only one walk to take the victory.

Steve Combs and Dan Barrett collected a pair of hits apiece to show the way for the Tigers 4 to 1 victory of the Yanks on Wednesday. Steve Melchert was the winning pitcher and Keith Patton was charged with the defeat.

IN A MARATHON, eight inning tilt, the Red Sox and Indians battled to a 1 to 1 tie on Tuesday.

Donald Tippie went the first seven innings on the mound for the Red Sox only to be relieved by David Riberts at the start of the eighth. The Indians Larry Villa hurled seven innings and Genio Adams took over the chores in the eighth.

Terry Tiedman collected two hits for the Indians while Villa and Lonnie Languis collected a hit apiece for the Tigers.

Yellowtail Fishing Starts Going Again

Yellowtail fishing at the Coronado Islands still is threatening to break out at the seams although blustery weather and lower water temperatures resulted in sharp cutbacks in catches last weekend after they had reached the season's peak a few days earlier.

The turn for the better began last Wednesday when 85 fishermen picked up 110 yellowtails, topped off by a 27 lb. 6 ounce caught by Eric Dehmann, of San Francisco. The following day, only 68 rod and reelers accounted for 210, and Dr. A. E. Moore, of San Diego, checked in a 10-fish limit of 18 to 20 pounders.

The bottom fell out again Saturday, due to rough water and adverse currents, but by Sunday the fish were showing everywhere around the islands and catches were jumping again.

Prize winning yellows for the San Diego Yellowtail Derby week included: 24-2, Will Gants, San Diego; 22-4, C. M. Coffman, Montebello; 22-3, J. E. Sheppard, San Diego; 21-15, Max Guess, San Diego, and 21-12, Mrs. Lillian Solem, of Monrovia.

H. J. Thomas, of Whittier, landed a 45 pound 13 ounce white sea bass—almost four pounds above the payoff weight in the Boosters' Cash Bonanza — but his failure to enter the daily competition cost him a cash award of $1267.

First Marymount Graduation Set On New Campus

Howard Pyle, former governor of Arizona and now president of the National Safety Council in Chicago, will be the principal speaker at the first commencement exercises of Marymount College on the new Palos Verdes Estates campus on Wednesday, May 31st.

His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre will preside and will present diplomas to 26 members of the graduating class. He will be assisted by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Benjamin Hawkes and the Rev. Peter Caslin.

Representing Marymount College will be the Rev. Mother Gertrude, Provincial Superior of the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary, and Mother M. du Sacre Coeur, president. Senior student Geraldine Gleason will deliver an address of welcome to the distinguished guests.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. McCarthy, pastor of the new parish of St. Peter Alcantara in Rolling Hills, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May 28, at 11 a.m., and will also officiate at the Investiture of the senior class in academic hoods.

Parents of the graduating class will be the guests of the college at a brunch following the Baccalaureate ceremonies, and a luncheon will honor His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre following the graduation exercises.
