Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Pace of 5108 Macafee Rd., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on April 30. They were married in 1936 in Sharon, Pa.

The local couple have five children. Mrs. John S. Moore, Jr.; David Pace, recently engaged to Miss Luana Alford; Cynthia, Danny, and Dale.

They were entertained by dining at the Fox and Hounds Restaurant in Santa Monica and also attended "Cinerama" in Hollywood. Open house was also held with neighbors and friends gathering. They were: Messrs. and Mmes. Alex Carl Beard, Delbert Alford, Joe Gomez and family, J. A. Myers, John S. Moore, Jr. and family from Santa Cruz, Carroll Whitney and sons.

Also Miss Luana Alford, Miss Dorothy Hill and Mr. Milton Hanismire. The anniversary cake was beautifully decorated in traditional white and silver bells, with a large white bell on top inscribed with a silver 25 inside.

Mr. Pace is employed at Douglas Aircraft and Mrs. Pace at Nortronics.

DELEGATES . . . Mrs. Carol Amberson, San Pedro; Mrs. Iris Ekstrand, Torrance; and Dr. Gladys Hagler, Redondo Beach, members of the South Bay-Torrance Altrusa Club recently attended the Eleventh District Conference of Altrusa International, Inc. held at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley. The club is dedicated to helping students and mature women with vocational guidance, and financial assistance for education.

PTA Installs

"Locking Up" was the theme at Waleria PTA when officers were installed. Initiation was made by Mrs. William Allen. Mrs. Robert Schrauben was installed as president and her board members: Mmes. Lyle Johnson, Carl Vedborg, Roger Helms, Glenn Karhu, Don Moore, Elsworth Pfau, Henri Pernot, and Mr. Victor Kilburn.

Mrs. Grogan was honored by the board in recognition of her retirement from the Waleria School faculty. A group of 7th and 8th grade girls modeled clothes made by them in Mrs. Locke's homemaking class. The Blue Birds led the flag salute under the direction of Mrs. R. DeMott.

Anniversary

Charlotte Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Schmidt, 716 Acacia Ave., surprised her parents on their 25th wedding anniversary by giving a party for them on May 14.

The guests included: Messrs. and Mmes. Dave Graham, Pat Hutton, Marvin Gettsch B. Coast, James Carbon, E. Shanner. Others were Mrs. James Carlin, mother of Mrs. Schmidt, and nieces and nephews.

A wedding cake was served. The focal point of the party was the centerpiece — a silver dollar tree with 25 silver dollars hung on it.

Legion Will Sell Poppies

"Poppy Day" will be observed throughout the state of California and the nation on May 26 and 27.

Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, will offer their poppies, which are made by disabled veterans in the veteran hospitals. Materials for the poppies are purchased by the American Legion Auxiliary. Women of the auxiliary assist in the making. Veterans are paid for the work and money derived from sales is used exclusively for welfare work.

Serving as chairman is Ruby Baxtrum and as co-chairman, Alice Thompson, who served as hospital chairman for the Torrance Unit.

The poppy is a replica of the tiny flower that sprang to life on the battle fields after World War I. It is a remembrance to our war heroes and an allegiance to the living veterans in hospitals throughout the land.

Mrs. John Feiblekorn, treasurer; Mrs. Lorraine Olshansky, auditor; Mrs. Graden Stuart, historian.

Entertainment will be provided by the school jazz band and chorus. Refreshments will be served by the seventh and eighth grade mothers. Child care will be provided.
