Zody's Birthday Celebration Attracting Thousands to Store

Zody's Birthday Celebration, which started May 25, attracted thousands of celebrants to the discount department store at Hawthorne and 182nd St.

Highlighting the fun-filled festivities will be the chance to win many fabulous prizes. Shoppers are invited to fill out the prize tickets, and to enjoy the general festivities. Grand prize is a magnificent Voice of Music Console Stereo valued at $500.

Two exciting Holidays at the glamorous Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas for two will include all food, room and beverage expenses. Hundreds of other prizes will be given during the celebration.

An exciting and delightful highlight of the festivities will be the drawing of a lucky prize winner of Zody's Toy Marathon. The child whose name is drawn will be given the run-of-the-toy department in a thrilling five minute marathon.

Everything the child can put in a Zody's basket will be his to keep.

The celebration honors the opening of the first Zody's store in Garden Grove one year ago. Featuring self service shopping, first quality merchandise, and the lowest discount prices available, Zody's has gained enthusiastic acceptance from thousands of shoppers.

Elks Will Pay Tribute On Flag Day

Chuck Marquard, Exalted Ruler of B.P.O. Elks Lodge, Torrance, today called for a community-wide renewal of allegiance to the Stars and Stripes on Flag Day, June 14.

"When we pledge allegiance to our flag, we acknowledge that ours is one nation, under God, recognizing that we are endowed with freedom by our Creator," Marquard said. "We also recognize the Stars and Stripes as the symbol of true love of our fellowmen, and it is only through that the world can be saved from the destruction of nuclear warfare."

Marquard invited all citizens to join with the Elks on June 14 in a patriotically and spiritually inspired day of re-dedication to our flag and the great American heritage of freedom which it represents, a freedom which we hope all mankind will enjoy.
