

SAFETY POSTER WINNERS . . . Stressing safety in the home, school and community, Perry PTA sponsored a safety poster contest at the school with 300 students entering. The winners were from left, Mark Woodruff, upper grades; John Murawski, middle grades, and Thomas Tekulve, primary. Awards were presented at the last PTA meeting by Robert Allen, principal.

Sisterhood Takes Part In Affair

Southwest Temple Beth Torah Sisterhood is one of the 16 Sisterhoods of Conservative Synagogues that will participate in the Annual Donor Luncheon sponsored by the Pacific Southwest Branch of the National Women's League of the United Synagogue of America to be held Monday, June 5, at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Mrs. Melvin K. Sires, Sisterhood president, states that this gala event will culminate a year of busy activities by the members of the Sisterhood. Approximately 73 women from this area will attend the luncheon.

Mrs. Max Warren, Branch Donor chairman, who is coordinating the arrangements for the participating Sisterhoods, states that a gay and entertaining program is being arranged. Highlighting the program will be Mr. Jon Silo, noted Yiddish humorist and singer, according to Mrs. Maurice Toomin, Program chairman.

The theme for the event is "May Our Labor Be Fruitful and Our Rest a Delight." A table decoration carrying out the theme is being prepared by Mmes. David Rabin and Esmond Kronick.

SANDRA RAYES . . . Auxiliary's Choice

Auxiliary to Elect Tonight

Election of officers for 1962 will highlight the meeting of the Harbor View Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Assn. Unit 217 this evening at 8 p.m. at Ulbrand Hall, 1125 Gaffey St., San Pedro.

The business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. William Davis, president.

A social hour will follow. All members and officers are urged to be present.

Delegate Chosen for Girls State

Sandra Rayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph G. Rayes, 4303 W. 177th St., has been selected to represent the Bert. S. Crossland American Legion Auxiliary at Girls State which will be held on the campus at University of California at Davis.

Sandra, an 11th grader at North High school, is a past member of the Scholastic society and is on the "B" honor roll.

She is active in the French club, secretary of the Speech club, Cheerleader for GAA and a member of the National Forensics League.

The local student has participated in speech tournaments and has won several awards during the past year.

Popular on campus, she was voted "Miss Friendship" of the Junior Class and 1960 Homecoming Queen.

She has been elected Senior Class president for the fall semester 1961-62.

The Legion Auxiliary selected their delegate on the basis of scholastic, citizenship and leadership abilities.

Chairmen Honored at Officers' Luncheon

To express their appreciation to chairmen and others who have assisted, the officers of the Mothers Department, Parent-Faculty organization of Bishop Montgomery High School, entertained at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Elles E. Cook, 1625 Fern Ave., Torrance.

Other officers, hostesses with Mrs. Cook, included Mmes. Leon Cooper and John Bennett, first and second vice chairmen; Lew Westwood and William Reeves, corresponding and recording secretaries; Francis Chamberlain, treasurer.

Buffet luncheon was served to fifty-six guests, and the guests enjoyed the hostess' lovely flower garden.

The Rev. Michael McNulty, principal of the high school, put in a brief appearance to personally thank the ladies for their assistance.

New officers, to be chosen in June, will be installed at the installation dinner June 10 at the K.C. hall in Redondo Beach.

Guests at the luncheon included: Mmes. W. A. Melvold, Paul Gersch, Alex Bender, Joseph Comore, Charles Butterfield, Lawrence Monaghan, Joseph R. Wojcik, James C.

Anderson, Corwin G. Dean, Thomas A. Jamison, Lyle J. O'Hara, B. J. Malcombe, J. V. Gardner, A. J. O'Keefe, J. F. O'Rourke, Sid Lemberger, H. E. Embrey, Lee Carroll, Gayle Martin, Joseph Schneiderhan, Lars A. Holt, Thomas Maccarrone, Newton D. Lesh, James J. Catena, Joseph Lucas, Sam Estes, Frank He-Allister, George Byrnes, Alfred H. Curry and Joseph Moore.

Others enjoying the luncheon were Mmes. Harry M. Sweet, John J. Porizak, John Creedon, E. J. Wheelock, J. M. Roberts, Holt French, Joseph Soja, Joseph Abegg, Vincent Tyrell, Gordon McCrea, Paul Sanford, Charles Davis, Leonard McDowell, Fred Rathert, Albert Goodall, John Lessing, Harry T. Green, August O'Connor, W. V. Schneider, E. M. Burroughs and Anthony J. Viliano.

Entertain

Gathering friends together for a dinner party at the Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach recently were Capt. and Mrs. Edmund Scott, who were celebrating the acquisition of a new home in the Hollywood Riviera. The couple moved here from San Diego.

Emblem Club Project

Gala Fashion Show Set for Saturday

Gardena Emblem Club will stage its seventh annual fashion show and luncheon on Saturday, June 3 in the Elks Hall, 1735 W. 162nd St. Approximately 600 persons will attend the colorful affair.

Named by President Mrs. Erwin Popp to coordinate the show as general chairman is Second Vice President, Mrs. Richard Keenan, and co-chairman, Mrs. Al Luchsinger, who has chosen "Vacation Time Fashions" for the show theme with the help of Mrs. William Trinkle.

Fashions that can be worn the clock around from sports to evening wear will be provided by Mari Lyn's. Childrens wear shown will be provided by a Gardena shop. Local beauty salons are doing the coiffures for all the models.

Lee Westfall will commentate the styles which will be modeled by Emblem Club members. Mmes. William Cloud, Maxwell Ziegler, Harold Smith, George Hoose, Cris Stanshaw, Lucille Ketchum, Guy Daline and daughters of members. Mrs. Thomas Monahan is chairman in charge of models. Styles modeled will spell "seven" to coincide with the theme of the year donating simplicity, excellent versatility, with the exciting natural look.

Other chairmen, who are working to make the show a more memorable one are: Mmes. William Trinkle, James Coella, William Saylor, Chester Palmer, Al Zhung, Barney Cohn, and Kenneth Miller. The 4-H Girls and Girl Scout Troop 2074 will serve the luncheon.

The grand award to be presented this year will be a $100 cash prize along with a gift certificate from the Mari Lyn Shop. There will be many other awards donated by Torrance and Gardena merchants.

This year the club has chosen the Cancer Fund as its main beneficiary, honoring the late Mrs. Dean Sadler, charter member of the club. This donation will be in addition to other philanthropic projects supported by the club.

Mrs. Al Luchsinger is in charge of tickets and reservations with the help of Mrs. George Haines. Mrs. Luchsinger and Mrs. Haines may be called for reservations.

B'nai B'rith Style Show Monday Eve

A fashion show open to the community will be presented by Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women at their next regular meeting Monday, June 5, at 8:30 p.m. To be held at Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 Gramercy Place in Gardena, the showing of summer styles will feature sportswear from a Gardena shop, according to Mrs. S. Cooper, program chairman of the group. The clothing will be modeled by Mesdames Stanley Caplan, Harry Cordova and Morton Weinberg, all of whom are members of the local chapter. Refreshments will be served, and the public is invited to attend.

"Sea" Theme for Junior Officer Installation Rites

"Gifts from the Sea" was the theme of the annual installation of officers banquet of the Torrance Junior Women's Club, Marina District, CFWC, held at the club house on Wednesday evening.

Installing officer, Mrs. John P. Schwartz, past Junior president, associated the duties of each officer being installed with the name of a different sea shell, a gift from the sea. Officers installed were Mmes. Jack Dean, president; Gerson Jacobson, first vice-president; Clayton Lilley, second vice-president; Jerry Saladin, third vice-president; John Stokley, recording secretary; T. J. Burchfield, corresponding secretary; R. R. McRee, treasurer; L. A. Schulwitz, auditor; Richard Dorothy, reporter; Richard Oliver, parliamentarian; Ronald Forestal, Federation; R. Sandstrom and J. P. Bay, coordinators.

"Who Married Your Husband" was the title of the lecture by the well known psychologist, Dr. Dixie Sturgis.

Table decorations, ornamental sea shells, succulents and candles, together with sea motif programs and place cards, carried out the theme.

Gifts were presented to graduating Juniors Mmes.

Don Carlson, D. E. Moore, John P. Schwartz, C. L. Bringer, and Richard Folk. Presented to the Senior Woman's coordinators, Mmes. R. Sandstrom and R. E. Shaw, were gifts to show appreciation and gratitude for work well done. A lovely copper chafing dish was presented to the outgoing president, Mrs. Lee Clotworthy.

Attends Meet
Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance attended the semi-monthly meeting of the Xi Gamma chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority Wednesday evening at the Melrose Nursery in Los Angeles.

SEE
Dorrie Ann
STYLE SHOP
HOURS 10:00 to 6:00
MONDAY & FRIDAY
TIL 9 P.M.
Style Plus — Minus Prices
Rolling Hills Plaza
2607 Pacific Coast Hwy.
At Crenshaw Torrance

Save where it does you the most good!

A savings account at United California Bank paves the way for all types of instalment loans and many more financial assists. You'll really appreciate the special consideration given you as a savings account customer. Visit the United California Bank office near where you work or live and open a savings account today. You'll earn daily interest—paid four times a year.

SAVINGS EARN DAILY INTEREST. DEPOSITS BY THE 10TH OF ANY MONTH EARN INTEREST FROM THE 1ST.

rare cooking arts revisited

not so unusual as this, perhaps, but all the Plush Horse fare wears that special aura which hints of medieval magic and secret recipes . . . unique combinations of fine ingredients with just a pinch of the wizardry which belongs to all great chefs.

Plush Horse Inn
1700 SOUTH PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY FRONTIER 8-6222 Oliver C. Berthoud, general manager

The modern bank where you'll always feel welcome

UNITED CALIFORNIA BANK

1403 Sartori Avenue, Torrance