Garden Club . . . Ann Landers Adjourns For Summer

Dear Ann Landers: I want to thank you for one dozen beautiful red roses. Let me explain, in case you think I've slipped a cog.

Torrance Terrace Garden Club closed its year with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernest Farrant, 21732 Palos Verdes Blvd., last Wednesday. The hostess served a dessert and a business meeting was conducted by Mrs. M. L. Hartley, outgoing president. A white elephant and plant sale was conducted.

Mrs. Hartley was presented with a past president's pin, the first to be given by the club. Another past president, Mrs. Wilford Stevens, who is now living in Fremont, was sent her past president's pin. Mrs. J. J. Lee of Tarzana was a guest of the club. Mrs. Jean Tankersley won the door prize, a plant.

Breskins to Tour Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Breskin, who will sail from New York on June 28 aboard the Italian liner SS Augustus for a summer in Europe, were complimented at a bon voyage party given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Alan Moore at their home, 1741 Elm Ave.

Mr. Breskin is a teacher at Torrance High school. For decorations Mrs. Moore used international flags and arrangements of gladioli. Bridge was played during the evening and the honor guests were presented with farewell gifts. The hosts then served a dessert.

With the Moores and the Breskins for the evening were Messrs. and Mmes. J. Stuart, Gordon Johnson, Mark Caldwell and Al Smith.

Several weeks ago you said something in your column about women picking up after untidy husbands. You wrote: "It's not worth fighting over. If your husband is the sloppy type, you're not going to change him. If he's neat consider yourself lucky, and — send his mother a dozen roses."

My daughter-in-law sent me a dozen roses with your column attached . . . and I want to thank you. — MRS. H. D. Dear Mrs. H. D.: It's always fun to hear about the interesting things that happen out in Reader-Land as a result of something that appeared in the column. I appreciate it when readers take a minute out of their busy lives to keep me posted. I call these little notes "Day Brighteners." Many thanks.

Confidential to LEFT FIELD: You're lucky to be in the ball park. My honest opinion that she's much too good for you.

Confidential to HIGH AND DRY: I suspect you were higher than you were dry when you wrote that letter. Please write again when you can think more clearly.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting — How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (c) 1961, Field Enterprises, Inc.

CWF Reviews Services Rendered During Year

The outgoing official board of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church of Torrance met in the Fireside Room, May 23. Mrs. C. H. Thompson, president, conducted the meeting. Plans were made for the brunch and table decorations which the board members will prepare for the monthly CWF meeting, Tuesday morning, June 6th. Installation of officers for the new church year will be held at this meeting.

The Christian Women's Fellowship service projects of the past year under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Mosley, service chairman, were discussed. As they have asked in the CWF prayer, "Open our eyes to the needs of the world and fill our hearts with concern for all people" so the groups have been shown ways to help others. Bandages were knitted by the dozens for use in tropical countries; Blue Chip stamps were collected for the purchase of card table and chair sets for the Avalon Community Center recreation rooms; several TB wards and the children's ward of the Harbor General Hospital have been adopted; children of needy families and at the Colorado Christian Home in Denver have been remembered on their birthdays and at Christmas. Varied money making projects have been undertaken to add to the funds which the CWF gives for others through unified promotion. The CWF has had many surprise projects for the men and women at the California Christian Home. Over one hundred beautiful homemade Christmas decorations were taken to the home at Christmas along with many individual gifts; bud vases were collected and filled with lovely fibre flowers to brighten their breakfast trays and rooms; also presented were individual room deodorizers, canned and dried foods.

As they have helped others, they have also found ways to serve at "home." The women have been willing workers in the building of the new Fellowship Hall. Many hours were spent painting in the new building; and in serving coffee and meals to the workers. The women have also served meals at the church suppers, Youth District Meeting, summer school teachers' luncheon; have helped in the kitchen housecleaning projects, made aprons for use in the Sunday School classrooms.

The CWF members contribute to Mrs. Mosley's leadership and many worthwhile ideas for the past year's service projects. They feel many new ideas and new ways to serve will be presented during the next year also by the new service chairman, Mrs. R. M. Stewart.

WHAT WILL YOUR LIFE BE LIKE IN THE ALL-ELECTRIC FUTURE?

SCIENCE IS DEVELOPING NEW SOURCES OF ELECTRICITY

American industry recognizes that the demand for electrical energy will soon reach staggering proportions — that the future is all-electric.

That is why today, more than ever before, practically all segments of industry are channeling tremendous effort toward one imperative, common objective: to be ready for the all-electric future by improving existing methods and finding new ways of producing and delivering electricity; by increasing the efficiency of electrically-operated products; by expanding the many ways electricity can serve mankind.

The electric industry, of course, continues to be in the forefront in this research. And logically so. Electricity is our business.

We have already produced electricity from solar energy, from fuel cells, and from nuclear and other sources.

Whatever the source, electrical energy is limitless, and Southern California Edison will continue to bring you an abundant, dependable supply at the lowest possible rates.

WHAT CAN YOU DO TO BE READY?

When you buy a range, clothes dryer, air conditioner, water heater or home heating — buy electric. Why compromise with progress? Electricity is today's biggest bargain — still priced at 1939 levels.

When you buy a home, go all-electric. DON'T BUY BUILT-IN OBSOLESCENCE.

Look for this emblem. It will look out for you. When you see the Gold Medallion Home emblem, it means that you've found a total-electric home. It represents tomorrow's living today. And it means an amazing future for you — an all-electric future.

Why live in the past?

You can live better electrically today.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA Edison COMPANY

Electrically-produced ultrasonic waves will dry-clean your clothes instantly, right in your closet. You will make a cake or saw wood with cordless appliances . . . shop by two-way TV-telephone. And this is only the beginning of the wonderful things to come.

YOUR FUTURE IS ALL-ELECTRIC

Ten years ago the average family owned 15 electric appliances. Today, the same family owns more than 30. The number of ways electricity will serve you tomorrow is almost unlimited.

Marymount High Stages Moonlight-Roses Prom

With the theme "Moonlight and Roses," Marymount Palos Verdes High School last Saturday evening staged its annual Junior-Senior formal prom. The event, held in Lourdes Hall on Campus, came to its climax with the selection of the Marymount Queen.

Toni Pecarovich of Rolling Hills was crowned Queen of the Prom by the Rev. Doria Grimard, school chaplain. Selected as princesses in Queen Toni's court were Mary Jo Oik and Beth Sheridan, both of Rolling Hills.

Marymount's Lourdes Hall was decorated with a great crescent moon shining from the stage onto a giant rose. One of the rose petals served as the throne for the Queen.

Green grass carpeting edged with roses formed the royal pathway to the throne.

During the prom, refreshments were served in the social hall including sandwiches, petit four and punch. Music for the dance was provided by Jerry Mandel and his orchestra.

Prom chairman was Mary Barrett-Smith of Redondo Beach. In charge of refreshments was Coalie Nesenon of Torrance. Marilyn Miles of Long Beach was in charge of bids, while the decorations committee was headed by Helen McPherson of Manhattan Beach.

Chaperons included Col. and Mrs. Leslie Summerfield of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Montagne of Palos Verdes Estates.
