The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Kulp, Jr., 2057 W. 230th St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wiehe of Inglewood.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing an Alfred Angelo original wedding gown. It was of white silk organza fashioned with a fitted bodice and off-shoulder neckline and short cap sleeves. The neckline and sleeves were of Alencon lace studded with seed pearls. The bouffant organza skirt, appliqued with Alencon medallions, fell into a chapel train. The billowy illusion veil fell from a silk organza rose atop a lace Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Janet Clayton was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Sharon Thomas and Gloria Busch and Mmes. Sally Schmidt and Linda Conry. All were gowned in mint green organza over taffeta and their flowers were white carnations tipped with green. Headpieces were green silk organza roses.

Little Miss Capri Montgomery, in a mint green organza floor length dress with hoop skirt, was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Johnny Kulp.

Jim Craus performed the duties of best man and ushers were Paul Harris, Richard Dewey, Hank Ruby and Ralph Russo.

... Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: My neighbor took her 7-year-old daughter to the hospital to have her tonsils removed. She told the child she was taking her to visit a sick friend.

When they reached the hospital the little girl was turned over to a nurse and, needless to say, she carried on something awful. Another mother who happened to be in the corridor told my neighbor that she had done a terrible thing, and they got into quite an argument.

I think the woman was absolutely right but my neighbor claimed she handled it in the best way. According to her, the child would have been a nervous wreck for days if she had been told in advance of the operation. Is this right? — THIRD PARTY

Dear Third: Your neighbor was wrong: Lying is the worst possible approach. It destroys a child's confidence and compounds the fear because the youngster doesn't know what is happening to him. Every child should be emotionally prepared in advance for hospitalization. If parents don't know how to do it they should seek the advice of a doctor.

If alcohol is robbing you of clarity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic" in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (c) 1961, Field Enterprises, Inc.
