Personal Medical Record Card 'Could Save Lives'

The personal medical record card, included in the appeal letter of the current crippling respiratory disease campaign, can save your life, Dean L. Sears of Torrance, 1433 Post Ave., local campaign chairman said yesterday.

Specifically designed to be carried in purse or wallet, the medical record card was included in the fund raising appeal letter mailed to local residents last week by the Tuberculosis and Health Assn. of Los Angeles County.

record card could be of great assistance to the attending physician."

SEARS ADDED that chronic respiratory illnesses now account for approximately one-fourth of the man hours lost to industry. It is estimated that 330,000 people in this area are suffering from some chronic lung ailment.

"Science has just begun to uncover some of the answers relating to the diseases of the respiratory tract and progress in this area of medicine can be of great benefit to all residents of our community," he concluded.

THROUGHOUT the month of June, the pioneer voluntary health agency in our community is soliciting funds for the support of medical research, health education and community service projects in the area of chronic respiratory diseases, Sears said.

"I would urge all Torrance residents to keep and use their personal medical card and also to answer their appeal letter as soon as possible," Sears added. "In case of accidents or other emergencies, the data listed on the personal medical

Fisher Gets Scholarship From Church

Presentation of a scholarship valued at $100 in memory of Robert Mason was a highlight of services Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, pastor of the church, presented the award to Richard Fisher, who will be graduated tonight from Torrance High School.

Cal Poly-Pomona Admits Ralph Freas

Ralph A. Freas, Jr., 5320 Clearsite, has been admitted to the Kellogg Campus of California State Polytechnic College in Pomona for the 1961-62 school year.

Freas plans to major in electronic engineering at Cal Poly. Cal Poly will accept applications for admission from both men and women students for the 1961-62 school year through Sept. 1.

Fisher, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, 716 Amapol. Ave., was selected on the basis of his scholastic achievement while in school and for his activities on behalf of the First Methodist Church. He will attend the California Western University in San Diego this fall where he will begin studies for the ministry, it was reported.
