. . . Ann Landers

 guest. How did she get into this act anyway?

Dear Ann: I'm a grandmother whose heart is breaking. Six years ago my daughter left her husband. He was a lazy bum and didn't treat her right. She had to take a job out of the city because he had a violent temper and threatened her.

I took their five-month old baby and agreed to keep him until my daughter was able to send for him.

The boy is now in the first grade at school. He calls me Mommy and I love him as if he were my own child. Two weeks ago my daughter wrote that she married a fine man and wants the child back. I can't bear the thought of losing him. Please tell me what to do.

—B. M. D.
 Dear B. M. D.: You must return the boy to his mother now that she can provide a home for him. Call the Family Service Bureau and ask about a foster child. You seem to have a great deal of love to give, and there are many children who need it.

Confidential to SOBBING SAL: Sorry, I agree with your mother. A turtle does not belong in the family bathtub.

Confidential to ON MY KNEES: Well, get off, you'll ruin your pants. I refuse to be a patcher-upper for a guy who abuses women time after time then tries to get a third party to fix everything.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

B'nai B'rith Sets Program For June 21

"This is Your Life" will be the theme of the meeting of Southview B'nai B'rith on Wednesday, June 21, at the House of Pancakes in Torrance.

At this meeting, one of the members will be honored for her work in behalf of B'nai B'rith. Mrs. Jack Esentzen, program chairman, has arranged the "This is Your Life" section of the program and states that there will be many surprises.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. After the program, there will be dessert.

Plans for the coming year will also be discussed. Mrs. Raymond Wintroub, ways and means chairman, has planned a family picnic for July and a mother-daughter tea for September. Anyone interested in attending this meeting or in joining the Southview B'nai B'rith may call Mrs. Saul Sanders.

Arcata Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Osborne, 3026 Torrance Blvd., have had as their guests for several days this week old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Arcata, Calif. The visitors came to Southern California to attend the graduation of their grandson, Freddie Anderson, from Fontana High School.

Family Service Awards Given at AF Coffee

The Family Services Center of the Ballistic Missile Complex held a coffee open to all military personnel and their dependents on Thursday at the Non-Commissioned Officers' Club, Inglewood.

Family service pins, indicating the active volunteer has worked for four hours monthly over a period of three months, were awarded to approximately 50 eligible women by Colonel William R. Morton, Commander Headquarters 6592 Support Group. Colonel Morton also awarded letters of appreciation to Family Service members with less than four hours monthly service.

Following the coffee, all personnel were invited to attend the opening of the new Family Service Center in Building 12-A.

The Family Service program is an official Air Force agency, staffed by volunteers, which offers emergency assistance to military dependents when needed.

Torrance women receiving pins included Mmes. William Leonhard, 5005 Paseo de las Tortugas; Otto C. Ledford, 5210 Calle de Arboles; Charles E. Nelson, 5008 Pacific Coast Hwy.; W. J. Spindler, 5113 Vanderhill Rd.; Harvey W. Eddy, 21818 Anza Ave.; Gladstone E. Lewis Jr., 2421 Loftyview Dr.; Edward A. Lembeck III, 22413 Kathryn Ave.; Paul G. Francis, 5510

ME Circle Begins Year

Martha Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met June 1 at the church for the first meeting of the new year. Mrs. Harlan McCool, chairman, presided at the meeting.

A business meeting was held following devotions by Mrs. Herman Falk and a missionary report by Mrs. Richard Belden.

The group then went to a cafeteria for lunch where Mrs. J. S. McMullen, outgoing president, was given a gift.

A lighted birthday cake was placed before Mrs. David Turner and Mrs. Earl Robinson who celebrate birthdays in June.

Others attending were Mmes. Lee Hof, Flora Owens, Lena Owen, Lula Tunks, Blandford Moyer, and Aris Peterson. They were joined for luncheon by Mmes. C. P. Olson, Roy Goree, H. Holmes, Chester Wiley, Hazel Wiley and Russell Paxton, president of the WSCS.

MRS. LOUISE COMPTON . . . Keeps a Keen Interest

Reception Honors Local Woman on 90th Birthday

Mrs. Louise Compton was honored on her 90th birthday anniversary, Sunday June 11, when many of her friends took part in a patio reception at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Roepouch, 25840 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

The reception table was centered by a huge yellow artificial cake topped with a large "90" and almost covered with ninety pink candles. Refreshments were served by the hostess with Mrs. Compton's granddaughter, Mrs. Iris Brumblow, presiding at the coffee urn.

Guests were from the First Christian Church of Torrance where Mrs. Compton has been a member for about thirty years, as well as many of her Lomita neighbors and friends. Among the dozens of birthday cards she received, were many from old friends at Wenatchee, Wash., where she formerly lived, and was a charter member of the Christian Church there.

Two of her children, Ivan J. Compton and Mrs. I. A. Dykkes still reside there. She has six grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren. Four generations live in Lomita.

Mrs. Compton is very active and attributes her long life to keeping busy and taking a keen interest in what is going on in the world.

WSCS Meet Closes Year

Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Torrance held its regular meeting on June 8 in the church sanctuary with Mrs. Russell M. Paxton, president, in charge. Mrs. James Dolan led the worship service.

Immediately following the business meeting, a short play "Mission in Paradise" was presented.

Rachel Circle served a luncheon at noon at tables beautifully decorated in the Hawaii theme.

This was the last meeting of the WSCS until September.

Birthday Party

Among the recent celebrants at the Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Miller of Hollywood Riviera, who observed his birthday anniversary with a small party. Dinner guest were Enid and Edward D. Stone of El Segundo.

Anniversary

Recent celebrants at Marineland Restaurant, where they were entertained by The Ink Spots while dining in the "Porpoise Room," were Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Lyman, who were observing their 43rd wedding anniversary.

Poets Pay Tribute to Local Woman

Palos Verdes Chapter of Chaparral Poets held their last meeting, until September, at the home of Mrs. Jean Geysbeck, on June 7. Mrs. Donna Allan, president, conducted the business meeting, during which it was noted that three members of this chapter had been installed in California Federation offices. Stella Flewelling as president, Jean Geysbeck, secretary, and Florence Bigham, treasurer.

Following the business meeting, a program honoring Mrs. Flewelling consisted of a tape recording of a radio interview with her. The subject was "Beauty and Inspiration in Poetry," and selections from her recent book "Listen! I Dream." Mrs. Flewelling also has a second book, "The Velvet Years," to come off the press soon, and a third "From Time I Find" will be ready for the Christmas market.

Program Is Planned by Sorority

Members of Xi Zeta Lambda were guests for their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Froilan Cota, 16957 Brighton, Gardena on June 13.

Reports of plans for the coming year were given by committee chairmen. "Grand Tour" was chosen as the program study for the coming year which consists of the study of the European Countries, the Caribbean, Mexico, South America, The United States and Canada.

It was reported that eight members of Xi Zeta Lambda attended the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary Luncheon hosted by Mrs. Ules Delahousie, a member of Xi Zeta Lambda on June 1.

Final plans were made for the Big Bear outing on June 17, for members and their families.

A chapter social will be dinner at the Islander on July 10 and a regular meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda to be held at the home of Mrs. John Wise of Lawndale on July 11.
