WILLIAM E. BELDING
Membership and Finance Committee

Broadway
Mgr. Named
To CC Post

William E. Belding, manager of the Broadway Del Amo, has been appointed chairman of the Membership and Finance committee, according to an announcement made this week by William E. Shawger, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

"THE CRITERIA of a success-Chamber of Commerce is a membership that supports its 'Program of Work' with ample funds and suitable physical assistance," said Belding on accepting the post. "The overall program, strength and accomplishments of any Chamber of Commerce or any organization is based on the activity and work of its committees and all members, both individually and as a whole. The backbone of such an organization is its committee on Membership and Finance," Belding continued.

The new chairman reports that in doing research on financial support of chambers in 51 other cities, the average per capita business support was 74 cents. He reports that in Torrance the current support is 25 cents.

Valerie White
Given Degree

Valerie White of Shell Chemical Co., received a bachelor of arts degree with honors at the 104th commencement exercises of the University of the Pacific, Sunday.

The degree recipient was among the first graduates since the Class of 1910 to receive diplomas from the University of the Pacific during 110th Founders Day ceremonies.

JayCees Plan July Carnival At Del Amo

Officials of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce this week announced that a community carnival will be held Wednesday night through Sunday, July 19 to 23. The location will be the back lot of the Del Amo Shopping Center.

Booths, and other carnival activities will be featured. Booths will be staffed by members of the JayCees and other service organization. in the city. Proceeds from the event will go to help finance the Torrance Rose Parade entry. An organizational meeting will be held June 29 in the City Council chambers. Any service organization which is interested is asked to have a representative at the meeting. It will begin at 7:30 p.m.
