Meadow Park Scouts

Girl Scout Troops of Meadow Park School held their Court of Awards on Thursday evening June 8. Families and friends of the girls were their guests.

The flag ceremony opened the program with Brownie Troop 985 and Intermediate Troop 614 presenting their troop flags as color guards for our nation's flag.

Brownie Troop 626, and girls from Intermediate Troop 614, were presented with World Friendship pins by leaders Mrs. Jean Penrod and Mrs. Ruth Morris. The girls had earned these awards by learning the member countries of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts and locating them on a map of the World. They learned about the costumes and uniforms of Scouts from these countries and of their manner of Scouting.

Brownies from Troop 985, under leadership of Mrs. Mary Baughman, received their fly-up wings from their other leader, Mrs. Betty Kastner, then crossed over the bridge into Intermediate Scouting. Here they received Girl Scout pins from Mrs. Marilyn Wolfe of Troop 1488. Each girl to fly-up was greeted by her Girl Scout sister with the salute and handshake and together they gave the Girl Scout Promise.

Membership stars for this year in Scouting were presented to members of Troop 985, Troop 1488, under the leadership of Mrs. Wolfe and Mrs. Worden, had previously received their second class rank badges and Cook and Nutrition badges earned by attending the demonstration put on by the Southern California Gas Co.

Girls from Intermediate Troop 614 who earned their sports badges in bowling were also presented with trophies by co-leader Mrs. Betty Ingham: High Series, Sandra Ingham; High Game, Charlotte Cooper; Winning Team, Lynette Gordon and Frances Callahan; Most Improved Bowler, Sharon Cooper. Leader Mrs. Gordon presented Second Class Rank badges to Kathy Northrup, Leanna Armstrong, Vicki Key and Frances Callahan. Leader Mrs. Ingham presented five-year pins to Ann Bamore, Charlotte Cooper, Carol Davis and Karen Hartel.

First Class Rank Badges were presented to Carolyn Bales and Barbara Tapp by Mrs. Cooper who also presented the Curved Bar pin to Sandra Ingham as she graduated into Senior Scouting.

Brownie Troop 626 led grace before refreshments and the closing ceremony was conducted by Troops 1488 and 985. The girls in these troops have been planning and preparing for this Court of Awards as part of their Girl Scout training in "girl planning—girl doing."

Girl Scout Troop 289

Girl Scouts of Troop 289 held their Court of Awards on June 6. The theme was "An Evening of Scouting." Following the Pledge of Allegiance, Susan Oldt read the poem "I Am Your Flag" by T. E. Wicks Sr. Their leader, Mrs. Doris Hall, welcomed the families, friends and a guest troop, then turned the meeting over to the girls.

Tecia Lewis welcomed everyone and invited them to enjoy an evening of scouting. She told how at seven years, a girl could join the Girl Scout program. Then at 10 a girl is ready to fly up into Intermediate Scouts.

At this time seven Brownies had their fly-up ceremony. Miss Lewis then explained the requirements in the 11 fields of interest to become a second class scout. The girls in the troop acted out those fields, after which they received their Second Class Badge from Mrs. Natalie McBee, Mrs. Katherine Michels and Mrs. Hall.

Following the explanation of Proficiency Badge Activities, all the girls in the troop received their earned badges for the year. Each girl had several. This led to the many requirements for First Class rank, and Donna Duckett and Peggy Younger were presented their First Class badge. Mrs. Hall then introduced Tecia Lewis and Susan Oldt as representatives of the Curved Bar rank.

HIGHLIGHT OF the evening was the presentation of Senior pins to Tecia Lewis, Susan Oldt, Donna Duckett, Cathy Dean, Louise Grigg, and Peggy Younger. These girls graduated into a Senior Troop.

A skit was presented by the Starlighter and Bluejay patrols to present Mrs. Hall with a surprise going away gift from all the troop. The surprise was a success. Refreshments were served, and all agreed it had been an outstanding Court of Awards.

Troop 154, Post 154X

Boy Scout Troop 154 and Post 154X, sponsored by Ryan Torrance Management club, recently held their second Court of Honor and also discussed plans for summer camp at the Calle Mayor School Auditorium.

Following the opening ceremony, the Court of Honor conducted by Scoutmaster Brett, invested 13 boys as Tenderfoots. Those pinning the Tenderfoot badge on their parents were: John Aldred, Richard Campbell, Richard Le Long, Erick Higgins, Bobby Lyons, Tom Mallery, James Miller, Tim Parker, Craig Pully, John Scherer, Harry Sloan, Larry Stanley, and Steven Vrana.

Second class awards and badges were presented by assistant Scoutmaster Walker, Joe Uberman, Jim Dosteder, Bob Thomas and Steve Nelson 'pinned' their mom and in turn Mothers will sew the Bar B patch badge on the neckerchief of her Second Classman.

First class awards were given to Kenneth McElyea and Larry Berry. Merit badges were presented to Richard Carper, Steve Rink, Robert Horton, Albert Brett, Sam Uberman, Bob Alderman, Berry Ratlin, Jack Whyte and Randy Whyte.

Service attendance awards were issued to Steve Harris, Robert Horton, Gary Berry, Larry Berry, James McElyea, Albert Brett, Delbert Mallery and Orrin Walker. A special award of instructor was given to Gary Johnson. Star awards went to Albert Brett and Robert Horton. Life Scout badges were issued to the parents of Steve Rink, Randy and Jack Whyte.

Order of Arrow, a camping award, was given to Mallery, Brett, Delbert Mallery, Bob Alderman and Steve Harris. The Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster were given a special award by the Boy Scouts American National Council for the completion of Leadership Training.

At the close of the presentations, plans were discussed for the coming 57 mile hike of the Silver Moccasin Trip, and summer camp plans.

Brownie Troop 2236

Brownie Troop 2236, sponsored by Meadow Park PTA, held a fly-up ceremony Sunday, June 11, at the Walteria Recreation Building.

Girls receiving their wings were Diana Laurens, Patricia Evans, Darlene Frame, Sheila McAdow, Kathy Keller, Karen Matsui, Deborah Williams, and Kathy McClaran. Mrs. O. Graves, leader, and Mrs. J. McClaran, co-leader, presented the girls with their wings. Mrs. R. Evans and Mrs. D. Keller, leader and co-leader of the new Girl Scout troop 985, presented the girls with their Girl Scout Pins.

The fly-up ceremony was preceded by a flag presentation given by Mmes. Smith and Thompson of the Bert S. Crossland Unit 70 of the American Legion. Receiving the flag for Brownie troop 2236 was Lynn Morehouse. Patricia Evans accepted the flag for Girl Scout troop 985.

Refreshments were served after the ceremony.
