the law and to move on. If this is the only way a man can feed his family — why should there be a law against it? I'm not harming anyone and nobody is forced to give me anything.

My wife is writing this and we need advice so please hurry your answer. —H. L.

Dear H. L.: No one has to beg on the streets of America in order to feed his family. There are excellent organizations that specialize in training handicapped people.

If you are 29 years old and can use your hands and your feet many doors are open to you.

Have your wife look in the phone book under Goodwill Industries and Handicapped Incorporated.

Confidential to HAND-SOME JACK: Your sad story gets me right here, Pal. Why don't you throw all that money in the lake then you won't have to worry about whether or not the girls love you for your plain, adorable self.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? It so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Tempting Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
