Girl Scout Troop 128

Girl Scouts of Troop 128 recently distributed Red Cross posters to stores to remind residents the Bloodmobile would be in Torrance. Kathy Rippy and Candy Voien assisted at the Red Cross Center.

Four girls were selected from the troop to be a part of a group of 500 Girl Scouts to attend the Roundup weekend at Chalo Flats in May. The girls pitched camp and then were sent on a fire drill. When they returned to camp they found that the wind (created by camp leaders) had knocked down all tents and tables that had not been assembled properly. Girls attending this camp were Carolyn Jensen, Mary Kane, Candy Voien, and Janis Albright.

MEMBERS recently participated in a "fly-up ceremony" at the Madrona School. They conducted the flag ceremony and assisted the Brownies to "fly-up" to intermediate Girl Scouts. Girls participating were Carolyn Jensen, Mary Kane, Kathy Rippy, Candy Voien, Nancy Whitcomb, and Janis Albright.

A Play Day was held at Torrance Park for all Brownies and Girl Scouts in the area. During the day girls participated in games, songs, dances, skits, and heard talks about summer camps. Danielle De Boer, Mary Kane, and Kathy Rippy attended the Play Day. The final event, was the awarding the Curved Bar, the highest rank in Girl Scouts, to Carolyn Jensen, Candy Voien, and Janis Albright.

ALSO AMONG the recent activities were, attending the Ice Follies and a swimming party at the home of Mrs. C. T. Rippy Jr., co-leader. Mrs. L. H. Voien is leader of this troop and it is sponsored by the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

Girl Scout Troop 532

Summary of the activities participated in recently by Troop 532 include the following:

A mountain trip to Camp Palmarito at which time these girls received their pins: Helen Smoot, 2-year; Daleleen Madigan, 2-year; Sherry Riggs, 5-year; and Sandy Adams, 3-year.

They contributed to the success of the Halloween and Christmas parties with their aid to the Torrance Recreation Dept.

Another Christmas activity was the presentation of the play, "What, No Santa Claus," to Miss Knoll's first grade class at Fern, and for the mothers of the girls of the troop.

Peck's Park was the scene of about 500 Girl Scouts, participating in the Little Round Up. Troop 532 was prominent in all activities.

Mrs. Javauda Riggs is the very able leader recently joined by Mrs. Gertrude Briney as co-leader.

The girls in this troop are Sandy Adams, Sharyl Adams, Marsha Briney, Debby Fox, Helen Hawk (who has spent three years in Puerto Rico), Helen McDonald, Daleleen Madigan, Christine Rodriguez, Helen Smoot, Linda Vang, Rose Marie Wesimon, Cathy Yurkovich.

Brownie Troop 289

The girls of Troop 289 closed their year with seven girls flying up to Intermediate Scout. The ceremony was impressive and inspiring. Their families and friends attended.

The girls opened with a flashlight flag ceremony and sang: "O Beautiful Banner." They received their wings from their retiring leader, Mrs. Doris Hall.

All the girls had completed their Tenderfoot requirements and received a special award from their leader, Mrs. Billie Grigg. The girls were led to the stage by the Brownies being left behind.

After saying their laws and giving their Girl Scout Promise before their new leader, Mrs. Betty Keller, they were invested as Girl Scouts and led from the stage by the Intermediate Scouts they will now be with.

Girls flying up were Donna Finegood, Sandra Hall, Deborah Henderson, Peggy Keller, Bonnie Massey, Theresa Orozco, and Patricia Still.

During 1961 the girls welcomed four new Brownies into the troop. They are, Mary Gail Finney, Charlotte Grigg, Diane Gibilisco, and Colleen Richardson.

The troop has had two fundraising campaigns to raise money to go to the Lazy J Ranch in November. Another highlight was the visit of Sharon Albee and Nan McKenerick from the Mariner Ship, Sea Mate, as observers.

Balance of the girls in the troop are Jeanne Beam, Cathy Hall, Susan Hellman, Janell McBee, Patty and Diana Moon, Jeanne and Mary Mulvihill, Penny Novotney, and Gwen Welfare.

Nixon to Keynote Legion Convention in Long Beach

Legionnaires from throughout California are heading for Long Beach for the 43rd Annual Convention of the American Legion, Department of California, which convenes in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium Thursday.

There are 7500 delegates and alternates to the meetings of the Legion and its affiliated bodies, The American Legion Auxiliary, Eight and Forty and the Sons of The American Legion.

KEYNOTE speaker will be the former Vice President, Richard M. Nixon, himself a delegate from Whittier Post. He will speak at 11 a.m., Friday. Other prominent speakers include Gov. Edmund G. Brown, U. S. Senator Thomas Kuchel, and Legion National Commander William R. Burke.

The traditionally colorful parade will move at 2 p.m., Saturday, with Vice Admiral Frederick N. Kivette, USN, Commander Western Sea Frontier, as Grand Marshal.

The "Parade of Champions" contest of drum corps and motorcycle drill teams, is slated for 7 p.m., Friday at Stephens Field.

President's Grand Ball, in the Municipal Auditorium Saturday night, will feature Manny Harmon and His Music.

The public is invited to both the Parade of Champions and the Grand Ball. It also may make use of the Auditorium balconies during all convention sessions.

The convention will end Sunday with election of Department Officers and Delegates to
