Shell Reveals Promotions in Torrance Plant

Shell Chemical Co. has announced promotions and transfers at its Torrance plant which will take effect during the next month.

R. C. Balfour, 4919 Reynolds Drive, has been promoted to assistant manager of finishing at the rubber plant. He formerly was technical assistant. Balfour joined the company as a chemist in 1954.

Other changes include: R. L. Kittle, Long Beach, named to a senior position with Shell International Chemical Co., Ltd., London. He formerly was manager of manufacturing for Synthetic Rubber Division.

H. E. Hughts, Lafayette, replaces Kittle. He formerly was assigned to be manager of Shell's new rubber plant at Marietta, Ohio.

G. A. White, Long Beach, named to replace Hughes. White had been assigned as superintendent of operations for the Marietta plant.

J. J. Galligan, Long Beach, named to be in charge of treasury functions at the Marietta plant. He presently is supervisor of accounting for the Synthetic Rubber Division.

Torrance Teacher, Student Visit Airport

A teacher and student from North High School were among a select group honored today with a preview look at the nation's most advanced global air terminal - Los Angeles International Airport.

Instructor Lawrence D. Regello, 1515 Gates Ave., Manhattan Beach and student Richard Wagner, 16826 Thornburgh Ave., were among 600 aviation-minded teachers and students from 250 Southland educational institutions from five counties who helped in the inauguration of "No. 1 World Way" - address for the airport.
