'Thank You' Party Ends Year for Eta Kappas

Eta Kappa chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority held a "Thanks for the Memories" party at the home of Mrs. Charles Leitchweis, 18632 St. Andrews Place, on Wednesday evening.

The affair was an end of the year "thank you" to all members for their outstanding contributions made to the sorority during 1960-61. Hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth McVey, outgoing president, Mrs. Stewart Angus and Mrs. Leitchweis.

Mrs. Louis Verne was presented a trophy as the "outstanding member of the year." Mrs. Verne planned social calendar with unusual and interesting programs; was rush captain and ways and means chairman. She was coordinator of the year's largest philanthropic project "Korny Kapers Variety Show" put on by members, husbands and friends. Proceeds from the project were used for camperships for underprivileged children.

Mrs. Kenneth McVey was presented with a president's jewel gavel guard pin, a miniature gavel with nine pearls.

Mrs. Stewart Angus reported on the state convention held in Sacramento.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. Charles Pfeiffer, Vincent Mazzaro, Stan McDowell, John Meehan, Harry Hinting, Stewart Verne, Kenneth McVey and Connie Hauser.

Carson Faculty

Entertained

Mrs. Blanche Mansker, Hospitality committee chairman, was hostess at the semester luncheon for the faculty of the Carson Street School at the Three Lions restaurant in Redondo Beach. Among those present were Mrs. Minnie Wallace, principal, Andrew K. Osborn, vice principal, and faculty members through the sixth grade.
