ly surroundings. He is a very nice person, easy to get along with, and never complains. But I know it must make him terribly nervous to live in such dirt after the way he was brought up.

I hope you will print this letter. It may save his marriage. —CONCERNED SIS

Dear Sis: I haven't heard boo from your brother, but I'm printing your letter anyway because it might help YOU.

Believe me, I'm not in favor of sloppy housekeeping but when a woman writes to complain about the condition of a house she doesn't have to live in, I begin to suspect it's a substitute complaint — and not the real issue.

For your own mental health admit that you don't like your sister-in-law then forget about her housekeeping. I'll bet your brother doesn't even see it.

Confidential to DYING FOR THAT CALL: Try getting into the bathtub. It always works for me.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Needing and Getting — And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CDA Courts Sponsor Service For Country

Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America, held its first meeting of the year of June 20 at the Knights of Columbus hall with Mrs. Wesley Muzik, newly installed Grand Regent, in charge. The usual yearly subscriptions were adopted and the Court awarded a scholarship to a worthy student at Bishop Montgomery High School as well as a donation to Teresita Pines.

Mrs. Richard Wurm and Mrs. Paul Jogan, co-chairmen of standing rules presented tentative changes in the court's rules.

Catholic Daughters of America of this Archdiocese have the special privilege of displaying their patriotism for their country by sponsoring the Solemn High Mass at St. Vibiana's Cathedral in Los Angeles at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, July 4. The Mass is sponsored by the Past Grand Regent's club of Los Angeles and is the only time officers may wear their robes outside their courts.

Junior Court of Our Lady of Victory along with other Junior Courts will be the color guard. This is the eighth year for this event and approximately 1500 members will attend. Reservations are being taken for the breakfast to follow at the Los Angeles Athletic club. This Mass is inspired by the organization's motive "Love of Country through Love of God," stated Mrs. Muzik.

Members attending will be Mmes. Muzik, Laura Dupont, Norman Dupont, David Crockett, Anne Stora, Ronald Metro, Marie West, Sy Durham, Carmel Clune, Teresa Fajen, Tarrin, Clarence Connelly, Paul Hogan and Richard Wurm. Juniors will be Linda Bahner, Diane Briscoe, Diane Figueras, Linda Ryan, Linda Ste. Marie, Kathleen, Linda, Marlene and Roberta Shannon, Cynthia Somerset, Paulette Kleeber, and Alicia Williams. They will be accompanied by their chairmen Mmes. Richard Abshear and Roger Ste. Marie.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mmes. Fred Tamble, David Crockett and Clarence Connelly.
