New Vel's Ford Sales Center Opening Today

Grand opening of a third location for Vel's Ford Sales Co. at 1600 Cabrillo Ave. was announced yesterday by Vel Miletich, president of the Torrance auto firm.

The new location, near Vel's Ford Sales at 1420 Cabrillo Ave., will offer a complete selection of new 1961 Fords, Thunderbirds, and Falcons plus a new and completely modern service facility for all new car customers.

The older location at 1420 Cabrillo will become the headquarters for Vel's Fleet Department, truck and camper division, and new and used car service department.

The third location, at Pacific Coast Hwy. and Hawthorne, will continue as a complete new and used car sales center.

"We wish to thank the residents of the Torrance area for their loyal patronage over the past few years," Miletich said on the occasion of the Grand Opening ceremonies.

"We are most grateful for the good business we have enjoyed from the people of Torrance... their support has enabled our organization to continue a record pace of growth," he said.

"In return, we hope to continue to offer the finest in merchandise and service," he pledged.

The new car center at 1600 Cabrillo Ave. has been completely redecorated for the Vel's Ford Sales Co. operation.

Dinner Honors Gen. Honeycutt

A steak dinner, bidding a fond farewell to Brig. Gen. John T. Honeycutt, Commanding General of the 47th Artillery Brigade, was held at Headquarters, 3rd Missile Battalion, 57th Artillery this week.

Attending the luncheon were the battalion's staff officers and non-commissioned officers, commanding officers from the battalion's four Nike-Hercules guided missile sites, first sergeants and platoon sergeants of the Integrated Fire Control and Launcher platoons.

Upon completion of the meal, the battalion commander, Lt. Col. James W. Shockley, on behalf of the officers and men of the battalion, presented Gen. Honeycutt with a scroll of appreciation.
