New Chamber Board Set, President Frenz Says

Organization of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors has been completed except for area representatives, it was reported here this week by newly elected president Harold G. Frenz.

The eight directors who serve one-year terms as representatives of the various areas of the city will be named later this month and will be announced in August, the new president said.

FRENZ, manager of the Bank of America here for four years, was elected to the top office late in June to succeed William Shawger. Frenz had served as second vice president during the past year and was head of the Chamber's economic study program.

First vice president of the new board is James Hall, former city attorney for Torrance now conducting a private practice. Hall has been active in Chamber and civic affairs for several years.

DON H. HYDE, superintendent of industrial relations for the Columbia-Geneva Division of U.S. Steel, has been named second vice president. He served as treasurer last year. Charles A. Woodcock, certified public accountant, has been named treasurer of the new board.

DIRECTORS named to work with the new officer include William Belding, manager of the Broadway Del Amo; R. S. Pyle, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. here; William Greenawald, manager of the Southern California Edison Co. here; and James Weigel, manager of Security First National Bank. All will serve three-year terms.

The new president was raised in Minnesota and attended the University of Minnesota.

HE HAS since graduated from the American Institute of Banking, and has completed an advanced course of study at Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington.

Before coming to Torrance he was commander of the American Legion post at Walnut Park, and was president of the Kiwanis Club.

DURING WORLD WAR II, he served in the Navy as an electronic technician. He is now on the board of trustees of the Huntington Park Christian Church and teaches a Sunday school class at the church. He and his wife have three children, Nancy Diane, 19, Joan, 17, and James, 14.
