out of Denver when the pilot announced that the hydraulic system was losing fluid, warning the passengers that the landing would be rough.

THE PLANE then flipped up onto a waiting emergency truck, killing the driver of the truck, and burst into flames.

Mrs. Maude Moon, of Knoxville, Iowa, mother of Mrs. Ruby Holdsworth, 715 Cota Ave., was also a passenger on the plane, but escaped unharmed when she "saw a hole in the door and jumped through it."

NO OTHER Torrance residents were listed on the passenger lists, although UAL officials explained that many passengers' addresses were not yet known.

The Torrance Pop Warner Football Association expects to field two peewee teams, age 9 to 11, weight 65 pounds to 99 pounds; two midget teams, age 10 to 12, weight 75 pounds to 110 pounds; and one bantam team, age 11 to 14, weight 90 pounds to 130 pounds.

Torrance Valued At $222 Million

Assessed valuation figures released by the County Assessor's Office this week showed Torrance retained its seventh place rank among cities of Los Angeles County.

A valuation of $222,051,770 for Torrance was reported, an increase of $22,412,830 over the 1960 figure.

Hearing Planned

Cat ordinances are again under discussion by the City Council. A proposal for the ordinance was referred to the study agenda of the council.

A public hearing on the matter will be held as soon as the councilmen have a chance to look over the new proposal.
