... Ann Landers

—no good to anybody. The only person who stood by me during those dark days was my mother-in-law. She wrote me four and five letters a week begging me to keep fighting. She said if I had faith in myself I could climb back up again and be a self-respecting human being. Her letters kept me alive. I learned during those horrible weeks that if just one person believes in you, you can make it back.

As soon as I got out of the hospital I joined Alcoholics Anonymous. I've been dry for almost six months now and I am determined to stay that way. My wife and I are still separated but I'm hoping for a reconciliation.

If anyone deserves a medal it's my mother-in-law.

She's had a hard life — still works every day as a waitress and takes care of an invalid son. Her name is Loueva Cunningham and she lives in Marshall, Missouri.—STEPHEN YARSULIK, Kansas City, Kansas.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
