

Lloyd Hughes Married To Oregon Girl on June 30

In the First Baptist Church in Hillsboro, Oregon, on June 30 at 8 p.m., Miss Neoma Ruth Herrold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vernon Herrold of Hillsboro, became the bride of Lloyd W. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webber Hughes, 3708 244th St., Torrance.

Rev. Russell K. Wood, pastor, stood before the flower banked altar to officiate at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. James Miller, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Russell Ragsdale who sang "A Wedding Song" and "A Wedding Prayer."

Mr. Herrold walked to the altar with his daughter and gave her in marriage. She was gowned in scalloped French lace over white taffeta. Her illusion veil fell from a lace and pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of four white orchids, encircled by white rosebuds.

Mrs. Buel Liming was her sister's matron of honor. She wore pink and white organdy over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Evelyn Santesson, Misses Lorraine Maynes and Little Helen Herrold was Jean Ann Goetze. Their dresses were of Nile green organdy over taffeta. All of the attendants carried nosegays of pink roses.

The flower girl. She wore pink organdy and carried a lace and taffeta basket.

Buel Liming was the best man and ushers were Charles Kennedy, Marvin Herrold, and John Herrold.

Candles were lighted by Robert Santesson and Donald Kennedy.

After the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Miss Margaret Ferguson was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon in Washington and Canada. After July 17, they will be at home at 1051 Orange Grove Ave., South Pasadena.

The bride was graduated from Hillsboro High School and the Biola Bible College at Los Angeles in 1958, where she received her degree in Christian education. She is employed as Christian Education Director and Children's Director at the First Baptist Church in South Pasadena.

Her husband was graduated from Torrance High in 1949, and El Camino in 1956. He received his degree from the Los Angeles Baptist College in 1959 and is now in his second year at the Los Angeles Baptist Theological Seminary. Mr. Hughes is also employed by the Biblical Research Society of Los Angeles.

Bolens Home From Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bolen and daughter, Mary Lee, 1744 Iris returned Monday from a vacation in Ohio. The family flew to Cleveland and from there to Coshocton and Warsaw, Ohio where they visited their families. While Mrs. Bolen and Mary Lee visited with relatives, Mr. Bolen flew to Canada on a 10 day business trip.

On their last weekend in Ohio, they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Rod Norris of Philadelphia Pa., former Torrance residents.

Delegates to Attend NSA Convention

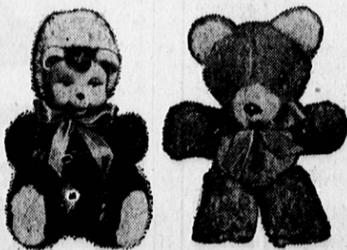

Mrs. Margaret B. Charles (Mrs. F. G.), 14118 Yukon Ave., Hawthorne, and Mrs. Hilda G. Smith (Mrs. W. Howard), 1836 Sepulveda Blvd., Torrance, will leave on July 19 to represent the South Bay Chapter of The National Secretaries Association (International) at the 16th annual convention to be held at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles, July 19-22.

Mrs. Charles, the Chapter's president, who is employed by Gaffers and Sattler, Los Angeles, was chosen as delegate, and Mrs. Smith, immediate past president, who is employed by the United States Coast Guard, Long Beach, was chosen to serve as alternate delegate. The Chapter's delegate is authorized to cast official votes in all business matters which will be discussed during the four-day session. This includes the election of International officers for 1961-62, including a new International president, five district vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer. The theme of the convention will be "Walk Worthy of Your Profession," reflecting NSA's basic purpose, which is to encourage secretaries to strive at all times to do a better, more professional job through continuing study.
