

OFF TO CONVENTION . . . Mrs. C. H. Thompson and Mrs. Dean Lougee pack their luggage as they prepare to leave for West Lafayette, Ind., where they will be delegates to the International Christian Women's Fellowship from July 19 to 23. The meeting will be held on the campus at Purdue University.

Local Delegates Attend Purdue CWF Conference

Mrs. C. H. Thompson, 16816 Falda Street, and Mrs. Dean Lougee, 1632 Iris Street have been registered as delegates and will participate in the second Quadrennial Assembly of the International Christian Women's Fellowship (CWF) of the Christian Churches. The Assembly will be held July 19-23 on the Purdue campus, West Lafayette, Indiana.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Lougee are members of the First Christian Church of Torrance and serve as president and vice president in the local Christian Women's Fellowship.

Several thousand women will participate in this meeting. Of these, more than 1500 have assisted in arrangements or will be assisting in the Assembly.

There will be 60 missions and nationals from 12 countries along with fraternal delegates from other communions and representatives of the church agencies. The Assembly is sponsored by the Christian Women's Fellowship Department of the United Christian Missionary Society, of which Miss Jessie M. Trout of Indianapolis and Canada, is executive secretary.

The purpose of the Assembly is to prepare women for the "Decade of Decision," the program of advance for the Christian Church for the 1960's. The theme is "Choose Ye This Day." The Assembly will confront the women with choices that must be made by individuals, the Christian Women's Fellowship and the church, and will provide resources to make the decisions.

Speakers for the Assembly include Dr. Howard Thurman of Boston, Mass., Dr. Virgil A. Sly of Indianapolis, Dr. Perry E. Gresham of Bethany, W. Va., Mrs. W. K. Evans of Austin, Minn., Mrs. C. T. Nelson of Washington, D. C., and Dr. A. Dale Fiers of Indianapolis, Bible lecturer.

Proposed changes in the By-Laws were read and discussed.

Service projects, which the chapter voted to work on for the coming year, were office work for the Hemophilia Foundation, making layettes for new born babies, making tray favors and visiting the elderly people's ward at General Hospital and helping a needy family.

The next chapter social will be luncheon at the Farmers Market on Saturday, Aug. 12. The next regular meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda will be held at the home of Mrs. Don Dawson of San Pedro on Aug. 8.

James Bierdon of Minneapolis, Minn., is spending a week here visiting with his great-aunt, Mrs. Regina Cunningham.
