

Anti-Red Cuban To Speak Here Next Thursday

Dr. Fred Schwarz, author of "You Can Trust A Communist," will speak Friday night, Aug. 18, at the Torrance High School auditorium. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. The public is invited and there will be no admission charge.

Schwarz is an Australian physician, surgeon, psychiatrist, and lay preacher who has been concerned with the Communist menace for a number of years. His book was written after study and travel in many Communist lands. He recently appeared before the House Un-American Activities Committee and his testimony has been recently published.

President of the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade, an organization devoted to recruiting volunteers motivated by a feeling of the church's position to oppose the Communists, Schwarz has been trying to educate the public to the subtle ways in which the Communists work. The meeting is being sponsored by the Local Citizens Committee in association with the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade to stimulate interest in the Southern California School of Anti-Communism being held in the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

Serving aboard the attack transport USS Paul Rever, operating in the Western Pacific, is Ronald A. Youngker, hospitalman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Youngker of 150 W. 226th St.

Since last November, the ship has steamed over 35,000 miles with Amphibious Squadron Five, a unit of the famed Seventh Fleet, and is scheduled to return to its home port of San Diego, Calif., in late August.
