

Ex-Tartar Gets High Post

Lee N. Mortenson, who was graduated from Torrance High school with the class of '50, has been appointed to the new position of manager, research and analysis department, Wyle Laboratories. In his new post, Mortenson will be responsible for management of all advanced development programs encompassing particularly the areas of fluid mechanics, heat transfer, and cryogenics, such as the current National Aeronautics and Space Administration contract for "state of the art" study of liquid hydrogen mass flow meters. Mortenson has been with Wyle Laboratories since 1956, and will continue as program manager, Air Force Ballistic Systems Division program at the firm for testing and other services on the Atlas, Titan, and Minuteman weapon systems. He received his bachelor and master degrees in engineering at UCLA.

river Suffers Minor Injuries

One person suffered minor injuries in one of two accidents within an hour of each other early Tuesday morning. Taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital with a lacerated nose was Harry Lester Gehr, 33, of 15824 S. Western Ave. Gehr told police he was westbound on Artesia Blvd. near Wilkie Ave. when he veered to the right to let a car pass and collided with the rear of a parked pickup truck. The accident occurred at 2:45 a.m. Wilson V. Ruse, 37, of 4702 Binewald Rd., escaped injury about 2 a.m. when his vehicle struck a light pole on the northwest corner of Anza Ave. and Cathann St. Ruse, who was southbound on Anza, told police he must have fallen asleep.
