'LIFE'S LIKE THAT By FRED NEHER

"There isn't anything like a vacation . . . getting mosquito-bitten, sunburned and overdrawn at the bank to make a fellow appreciate his job!"

Garden Checklist

1. Start working up a lawn seedbed if you plan to plant a new lawn next month.
2. Old or faded blooms should be picked off roses and other blooming plants to keep them in bloom longer. Fuchsias especially need this treatment.
3. Water dahlias deeply and mulch around them with steer manure. Once a week is usually enough with well-mulched plants.
4. Thrips and mites are more apt to be a bother than aphis this time of year. The answer to either is the same: spray.
5. Regular feeding of roses, fuchsias and begonias will keep them in bloom longer.

SHOWING WORK . . . Jari Havlena, distinguished Viennese artist, is currently staging a show of her canvases in the gallaries at the Three Lions Restaurant near the May Co. South Bay. She now resides in Manhattan Beach and is an art instructor at Harbor College.

FLYING BUSINESSMAN . . . Merton Stiles, president of the Bal-Nu-Vita Food Supplement Co., 2302 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., left early today from the Torrance Airport aboard the company's plan for a distributors meeting in Texas. With Stiles is the company pilot, John Seeley.

Bal-Nu-Vita Firm to Use City Airport

Merton Stiles, president of the Stiles-Van Zandt Food Supplement Co., located at 2302 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., has announced that the company will use the Torrance Municipal Airport as headquarters for their plane.

The company, founded three and a half years ago by Stiles and Harry Van Zandt, vice president of the firm, plans to use the plane for business trips. Stiles left early today on the first trip to Ft. Worth, Tex.

The firm manufactures and distributes Bal-Nu-Vita Food supplements. Since their opening here distribution has been achieved in 50 states and recently negotiations for distribution in the Dominion of Canada.

Accompanying Stiles on the first trip were John Seeley, agent and company pilot; Mary Wharff, agent, and the Nu-Trimm Girl; and agent Mike Lindsay.

Missile Parts Manufacturing Firm Opens

Organization of Space Equipment Corp., Torrance, to design, develop and manufacture missile, space and industrial products was announced here this week by Edward J. Horkey, founder and president.

Horkey, a pioneer in aircraft design and missile development, has had 26 years of experience in divisional and corporate responsibility as well as technical direction of a large number of major weapon systems programs.

* * *

HORKEY SAID the new aerospace engineering firm will be active initially in electro-mechanical and electronic ordnance systems and components, and high-strength structures of high-temperature plastics and rubber.

An expansion program through the formation of several operating divisions will be announced shortly, Horkey said.

* * *

"SPACE EQUIPMENT and its operating divisions, to be staffed by capable managements, each experienced and competent in separate product areas, can be expected to make important contributions in several areas of aerospace technology," Horkey said.

Space Equipment, a California corporation, is authorized to issue a total of 200,00 shares with a par value of $10 per share. Initial capitalization was effected through the private placement of 52,500 shares.

McLain Speaks to Senior Citizens

George McLain, chairman of the California Institute of Social Welfare, will speak to senior citizens next Saturday, Aug. 19, at 1:30 p.m. at the Embassy Hall, 839 S. Grand Ave., Los Angeles. He will speak on the social and economic problems confronting senior citizens.

McLain has just returned from testifying before Congress on the medical care bill through Social Security.
