L.A. City Schools Anticipating Record Enrollment for Opening

Extensive planning is underway this week as the Los Angeles City School System — the nation's second largest — prepares to receive 685,000 students on opening day of school, Sept. 11.

At 8 a.m. on that day, approximately 550,000 children and more than 135,000 adults will converge on the 578 schools operated by the Los Angeles system in its 825 square mile area. This includes elementary, junior high, senior high and adult schools, as well as junior colleges.

SCHOOL SYSTEM officials are winding up preparations to accomodate the increased school population on the September 11 date. This includes the opening of eight new scholos, completion of several hundred new classrooms at existing schools, and the transfer of portable classroom bungalows to new locations.

Aside from two days off in November, pupils will be attending classes continuously on weekdays until Christmas vacation which will be from December 18 through Jan. 1. The end of the school year is scheduled for Friday, June 15, 1962.

The year will consist of 87 teaching days in the fall semester and 92 teaching days in the spring semester for a total of 179 days in the classroom.

The first semester will end on Friday, Jan. 26, with the spring term getting underway the following Monday, Jan. 29.

• • •

HIGH SCHOOLS in the local area which will open Sept. 11, include Narbonne High, 24300 S. Western Ave., and Banning, 1500 Avalon Blvd. Banning High anticipates an enrollment of 2900 students, while officials at Narbonne plan on 1450 new and returning students.

Fleming Junior High, 25425 Walnut St., Lomita, and White Junior High, 22102 S. Figueroa St., will serve about 4000 students in adjacent city and county areas.

• • •

ELEMENTARY schools in the area which will open include: Bonita Street, 21929 Bonita St., Caroldale Avenue, 22424 Caroldale Ave., Carson Street, 185 E. Carson St., Del Amo, 1825 E. 213th St., Halldale Avenue, 21514 Halldale Ave., and Lomita, 2211 W. 247th St., Lomita.

Also opening are 223rd St. School, 1123 W. 223rd St., and Van Deene Avenue, 826 W. Javelin St.

Total expected elementary enrollment for schools in county and city areas adjacent to Torrance is about 7300 students.

Knights Install Eight Officers

James Neary was installed recently as Grand Knight of the Torrance Knights of Columbus, St. Gerard Council.

Other officers installed included Harold Pope, deputy grand knight; Ed Abbott, chancellor; Bob Coyne, warden; Guy Savidan, recording secretary; Harvey Lee, Rod Murphy and Randy Randles, guards.

Outgoing Grand Knight Charles Butterfield was presented a three foot granite statue of the Blessed Mother.

In other council activities, a membership drive is being planned. Neary said men of the Catholic faith interested in joining the organization may contact the officers or members for information.

Premiums totalling $11,385 in cash, one of the highest ever, were awarded winners of this year's state fair art show. The winning exhibits will be on display during the California State Fair, Aug. 30 to Sept. 10, in Sacramento.
