checks and we've never had any fights over money. He never mentioned this little $300 debt before we married and I am really put out about it.

Do you think that instead of letting him take a vacation in December I should insist that he work overtime for 18 days and pay that debt off himself? We had planned a little trip together, but I wouldn't mind staying home.

—GLADYS

Dear Gladys: Marriage is a partnership and that means you both share in the profits and the losses. Consider this a "loss" and pay it off together. He'll think you're a living doll.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How to be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-address envelope.

AIB Show Slated For Saturday

"Stairway to Fashion" is the theme of the annual luncheon and fashion show to be staged by the Women's Committee Harbor District Chapter of the American Institute of Banking on Saturday at noon at the Elks Club, 4101 East Willow, Long Beach.

Majel Dick, Women's Committee chairman, announced that Doris Stearns will serve as coordinator and Marvin Cloud will be the commentator.

Professional models will parade the new fashions. Men's fashions will be modeled by Harvey Waggoner. Vera Gentry of the Bank of America, Bellflower branch, will be the organizer.

Marvin Cloud is the assistant producer of the International Beauty Congress. He is also immediate past president of the Long Beach Community Players.

Thomas W. Clements, first vice president of the Harbor District chapter, American Institute of Banking, will present the educational program planned for the year.

Tickets and reservations for the fashion show may be obtained from local Women's Committee representatives, Dorthie Kirkpatrick and Sally Donaldson, Bank of America, Torrance Branch; or Grace Stewart and Virginia Hass, United California Bank, Torrance Branch.

Broadway Will Host Girl Scouts

The Broadway Del Amo will host Girl Scouts and Sub Teens on August 26 at 2:30 on the roof.

The event is the Annual DuPont American Girl Magazine Good Grooming and Fashion Show. The commentator for the show will be the fashion director of The American Girl Magazine, Miss Pat di Sernia. Miss di Sernia will fly from New York to especially commmentate the shows, for the Broadway.

Models for the occasion will be graduates of The Broadway Hi Charming Charm School. The show will feature exciting Back to School fashions built around the theme "Fashion Textbook for Hi-Charmers" (of course this applies to all sub teens). Various scenes include: Mathematics, look of the month; Art, "August American Girl;" Study Hour, "nightwear," History, "required reading California clothes;" and English, "Little Women." Miss di Sernia will give pointers on how to be a more graceful and posture-perfect "you," and the "you" that looks best in the newest Back to School styles for early teens. Pretty and practical fabrics will be featured in the fashion showing practical DuPont fibers that need little care.

The American Girl Magazine, published by The Girl Scouts of America for all girls, has planned this event in cooperation with local Girl Scout Councils, the DuPont Company, and The Broadway.

Girl Scouts are urged to wear their uniforms to the shows. All girls attending will have a chance to win one of the many exciting prizes offered.

Publicity Committee of the Torrance chapter 44, Women of the Moose, met recently at the home of Mrs. George Clay, 1115 Fonthill Ave.

Attending were Mmes. Evert Brody, Floyd Peterman, Arthur Galinsky, and Walter Witt.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Britt and Mr. Carl Fisher.

After a business meeting, refreshments were served.

Florida Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Jones, 2030 Cabrillo Ave., had as their houseguests last week, Mr. and Mrs. St. Sover of Lake Worth, Fla.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. E. Doran, 2141 W. 177th St., is this morning announcing the engagement of her daughter, Kathleen, to Jerry R. Canfield, son of Mrs. Regina Canfield, 1137 165th Pl., Gardena.

The bride-elect was graduated from North High School in June 1960.

Her fiancé, a 1957 graduate of Belmont High in Los Angeles, is employed by Belden Foods in Los Angeles.

No date has been set for the wedding.

AAUW Plans Coffees for Members

Prospective members of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women will be welcomed at coffees throughout the area Aug. 28, 29, 30 at 10:30 a. m.

Hostesses for this year's membership parties are Mrs. Phillip Korman, 22622 Hickory, Torrance; Mrs. Robert R. Raban 425-28th St., Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Hugh E. Wells, 1411-18th St., Manhattan Beach, and Mrs. Donald Gantner, 2601 Pine Ave., Manhattan Beach.

Women holding a degree from a university approved by the A. A. U. W. are urged to contact the above hostesses in their area or Mrs. Robert Rupkey, 661-19th St. Manhattan Beach, membership chairman, for additional information.

There are more than 142,000 college and university women in over 1458 branches participating in the "practical educational work" of the A. A. U. W. These women devote study and action to education, opportunities for women, international understanding and cooperation, pertinent social and economic issues, the mass media, and to individual intellectual growth through the arts.
