Local Nines Finish High In Tourney

Two local teams finished in third and fourth place as Monrovia set down the Compton Colts in the Compton Invitational Connie Mack Tournament and took home championship honors.

The Torrance Bullets, sponsored by the Police Officers' Assn., fell before a strong Compton team in the semi-finals, 4-0, and took third place honors. The Torrance Red Devils finished behind the Bullets in fourth place.

John Beck of the Bullets and the Compton Colts' all-CIF pitcher, Jim Tadem, had a pitchers duel for four innings, but Beck gave up a walk and two singles in the fourth frame as the Bullets committed a fielding error and three runs came across the plate for the Colts.

Compton added a fourth run in the fifth frame and went on to the final game against Monrovia. The Monrovia entry, after handing the Bullets their first defeat in play last weekend, set down the Colts and walked off the diamond with the tournament championship.

6-1 win over the San Pedro entry.

Jim Kegley turned in a 3-hit pitching performance and led the team at the plate. The 14-year-old batted out two hits at the dish and fanned 11 batters in six innings. He gave way to Bobby Bataglia in the final frame and Bataglia fanned the side.

Ronne Ponce drew first blood when he singled in the second inning. Gary Hayworth followed Ponce to the plate and promptly connected for a line drive that cleared the center-field scoreboard. The home run was Hayworth's fifth of the tourney. CATCHER STEVE Waters banged out a 300 footer and made the full circuit in the fourth, scoring two teammates ahead of him and giving the

Tomorrow Alondra Park will sponsor an Awards Banquet for the parents and boys of the various baseball teams. The evening will feature Los Angeles Rams football films and awards will be presented. For further information call the Activity Building at DA 3-8125.

City Golf Trials Set

Entries currently are being accepted for the Sea-Aire Teen-Age Golf Clubs annual tournament Monday through Wednesday, Aug. 28-30, according to Frank Murin, director.

Youngsters will compete in four divisions, including those for boys 9-11; 12-14; and 14-18; and for girls. Eighteen-hole qualifying play is planned, with match play to follow. Thirty-six hole play between the two top finalists also is planned. Trophies will be awarded for first and second places in each division.

Entry blanks may be obtained at the park, 22730 Lupine Dr. A 25-cent entry fee is charged for all members of the club.

Electric All-Stars a 5-0 lead. The All-Stars scored once more in the fifth on a two-base hit by center fielder Les Dutcher.

The only San Pedro run scored in the fifth frame when the San Pedro All-Stars put together a couple of hits and a hit batter to come up with a single run.

Teams came from as far as Bakersfield to play in the second annual tournament. All Torrance players were Babe Ruth leaguers.

Electric All-Stars set down Culver City, 16-6; Hawthorne, 6-5; and Bakersfield, 1-0, on their way to the final game and the eventual championship.

A sidelight to the Bakersfield game was the appearance of a 14-year-old who stood six feet tall and weighed in at 170. Tournament officials required his birth certificate and then ordered the game played on a Pony League diamond. All Torrance players were Babe Ruth leaguers.
