

Sub-Teens Get Chance To Win Fall Wardrobe

All young ladies between the ages of 10 and 13 inclusive have been invited by The Broadway Del Amo to take part in "Her Majesty's Sub-Teen Queen for a Day Contest," it was announced here yesterday. The winner will receive prizes including a complete wardrobe for back-to-school valued at $125.

She and her mother will be picked up by a chauffeured car and will be driven to The Broadway to enjoy a luncheon as guests of Manager William Belding. The winner will then select her wardrobe.

Young ladies may register for the contest by signing up at the Sub-Teen Dept. of the store. The selection of the winner will be made at noon on Sept. 2. The winner need not be present, but will be notified.

Student Body Cards Offered At Early Sale

South High Student Body cards will be sold during a pre-school sale from Sept. 5 through Sept. 8. The sale will take place in the Associated Students Store on the campus. Cards may be purchased at a 50 cent discount during the sale. Normal cost of the cards is $4. Students are asked to make purchases early and avoid the rush when school re-opens Sept. 13.

U.S. Steel Holdings Reported Increased

Holdings of common stock of United States Steel Corporation in 13 Western states on June 30, 1961, totaled 4,453,653 as compared with 4,509,449 held six months before, it was announced today.

Preferred stock held in the 13 Western states totaled 218,210 on June 30, 1961 as compared with 220,285 on Dec. 31, 1960.

ATTEND MS PICNIC . . . Mr. and Mrs. Eddle Long of Torrance and Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Baker and children, Mark and Kerri, of Lomita, were guests at the first special picnic for multiple sclerosis patients and families of the area Sunday in Veterans Park in Long Beach. Mrs. Jean Salisbury of Long Beach, a victim of MS, arranged the affair. The local drive for MS funds will continue until Sept. 14, according to Miss Elyse Aehle, chairman.

Gift Program Continuing At Glendale

Charles Cederlof, manager of the Del Amo office of Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Assn., has announced that the association is continuing its "Summertime Living" savings program due to increased business activity.

"The popularity of the wide variety of free gifts for better indoor and outdoor summertime living has been tremendous, and our business activity has increased accordingly," Cederlof said.

Glendale Federal's Del Amo office, located at 3832 Sepulveda Blvd., is currently offering the free gifts to customers who open a savings account — or add to one — in amounts ranging from $250 or more.
