The deliveries, part of Operation Handclasp, were completed with the Yokosuka stop. The Bon Homme Richard also made visits offering Handclasp materials to Subic Bay, Philippines, and Sasebo, Japan.

Boy Scout Troop 948

Boy Scout Troop 948, led by Scoutmaster Bud Rodgers, enjoyed an active week at Pepperdine Scout Camp at Lake Arrowhead.

In spite of minor excitement caused by irritated snakes and lizards, the boys managed to attend most of the camp activities, including swimming, skeet shooting, archery, crafts, and many others.

High point of the week was the horseback ride to Deep Creek. A hike of two miles to Medicine Mountain exhausted the boys so they appreciated their sleeping bags. Point of interest on this hike was the ruins of the old Allison Ranch.

THE LAST NIGHT of the week, the traditional campfire was held providing comedy and skits combined with the sadness of leaving Pepperdine for another year. Comedy was contributed by the camp counselors and Explorer Scouts, of whom the starring attraction was "Goldie." The campfire is the time when some of the boys are accepted as members of the Order of the Blue Ox. Jim Reis and Ed Cannady received this honor, which is earned by sportsmanship and skill in various sports.

Leaders attending summer camp were Bud Rodgers, Bill Maupin, and Joe Garriga.

SCOUTS attending were Henry and Peter Ahee, Richard Bain, Larry Burgess, Lory Burrell, Ed Cannady, Bill Clayton, Joe Garriga, Gilbert Hernandez, Gary Hogaboam, Gary Maupin, Gerald Miller, Edward Nady, Rickey Oxford, James Thomas and Pat Reis, Fred Reutz, Lance Schaus, Donald Volkman, and Lee Winegard.

Already the boys are making plans for their next year's trip back to their favorite camp ground, Camp Pepperdine.

America's first Cheddar cheese factory was built by Jesse Williams, near Rome, N. Y., in 1851.
