Political Drives Open At El Camino College

With petitions due Wednesday, prospective leaders in student government at El Camino College launched political warfare during the first week of classes.

Under the direction of Bob Kuehm, Torrance, who serves as vice president of the Associated Students, the fall ballot will feature candidate for the freshman class, vice president and treasurer of the sophomore class, secretary and treasurer of the Associated Men Students, president, vice president, secretary and treasurer of the Associated Women Students, commissioner athletics and Grid Queen.

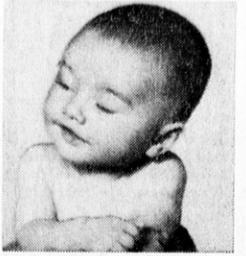

IN SCHEDULING the early elections, Kuehm called upon freshmen students, in particular, to assess their potentials and to weight opportunities available through experience in campus government.

Candidates for office will be introduced to the Associated Students during two campus rallies. Aspirants for 1961 Grid Queen will be introduced at 11 a.m. Sept. 28 where other office-seekers will be presented at 11 a.m., Oct. 3.

ELECTIONS will be conducted on Oct. 3 and 4. Heading the Associated Student Dan Anderson of Hermosa Beach.

Half a Hundred Torrance Elks To Attend Annual Convention

Some fifty Elks from Torrance Lodge 1948 will join 9000 others throughout California to attend the 47th Annual California Elks Assn. Convention, to be held in Santa Monica Sept. 27, 28, 29 and 30, according to Charles D. Marquand.

With all available hotel rooms in Santa Monica taken by early registrants, many delegates and their wives will be provided with facilities in surrounding cities, including nearby Beverly Hills, Tad Henderson, chairman of the Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce Convention Bureau, disclosed.

Registration is scheduled for all day Wednesday, Sept. 27.

CONVENTION Chairman Virgil B. Kingsley of Santa Monica will introduce State President Guy A. Daniels of Redlands as master of ceremonies, and Grand Exalted Ruler William A. Wall of Palm Beach, Fla., will address the Elks at the official opening ceremonies of the convention at 9 p.m. in the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

The initial business session will be conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 28, in the lodge room of the host Santa Monica 906 BPOE, and the final business meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday with the installation of officers and presentation of trophies.

TEAMS AND individuals will seek statewide honors in ritualistic, billiard, bowling, golf, drill team and pistol shooting in competitions during the four-day meet.

Solemnity will mark the Elks memorial service at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 29, in the civic auditorium, with veteran actor Monte Blue paying the final tribute in honor of the dead.

Reports will be made concerning the Elks contributions to the aid of hospitalized veterans and the organization's major project fund.

SOCIAL events will include the state president's cocktail party and banquet, the exalted rulers' dinner dance, a nightly lodge dances. Special tours and programs are on the agenda for the wives of delegates.

Tracing the growth of Elkdom, a musical extravaganza, "The Heart of Elkdom," will be presented by the massed chorus of California Elks and narrated by stage and TV star Hugh Marlowe, as the finale to the convention.

Departing September 2nd from Camp Pendleton with the First Battalion, Seventh Marines, for a 12-month tour with the Third Marine Division on Okinawa, were Marines Pvt. Robert L. Corbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Corbin of 22010 Reynolds, and Pfc. John A. Russak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Russak of 1604 W. 222nd St., both of Torrance.

McKesson Sends Thanks for Many Congratulations

District Attorney William B. McKesson today voiced his appreciation for the many thousands of telegrams, letters and telephone calls that are still pouring into his office at the Hall of Justice, congratulating him on his 35th year of public service.

McKesson said he is indeed humbled and deeply touched to be placed in such high esteem by so many people of all stations in life throughout Los Angeles County, California, and the United States. He said it would be weeks before he would personally recognize each wire and letter and apologized for the extra work caused to Post Office employees, switchboard personnel and his own staff.

McKesson HAS received thousands of telegrams, letters, phone calls and visitors from national, state, county and city political and public officials, civic, labor and fraternal leaders wishing him continued success in public life, and including messages from President John F. Kennedy, Post Master General J. Edward Day, Senator Engle, former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, Governor Edmund G. Brown, Attorney General Stanley Mosk, State Senator Richard Richards, and William Raggio of Reno, Nevada, Vice-President of the National District Attorney's Assn.
