

Guest Night Staged By Fiestadores

Las Fiestadores Dance club staged a "Guest Night" at its September dance last Saturday evening at the Pen and Quill Restaurant. Invitations, in the shape of a phonograph record, carried out the theme, "Just a Dance." Centerpiece on the tables at the restaurant were caricatures of dancing couples on phonograph records.

A pre-dance party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson from 8 until 9 p.m. when the group traveled to the restaurant for dancing to music furnished by Les Tronier and his orchestra. Door prize was won by the W. C. Christians.

Committee for the dance included Messrs. and Mmes. J. Helphand, J. A. Eisenbrandt, Johnny Johnson, L. G. Jones; Drs. and Mmes. W. E. Grubb and A. L. Pyeatt.

Las Fiestadores' guests were Dr. and Mrs. Paul Winn; Messrs. and Mmes. John Minech, Joe Blum, Larry Brown, Morris Galyardt, Jim Good, Allen Bergendahl, Miles Kellum, Claude Pearson and Cam Blakley.

Club members attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Henry Backlund, R. D. Bolen, J. B. Brooks, W. C. Christian, E. E. Clayton, R. R. Dexter, J. P. Montague, J. S. Moore, R. C. Morton, W. R. Patterson, G. H. Pearson, R. H. Triplitt, T. G. Wilkes, E. E. Wilson, C. A. Woodcock; and Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Posner.

Opera Star Guest Of Committee

"An Informal Chat" by former Metropolitan Opera star Nadine Conner will highlight the first Salon of the season of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. Members of the committee and their guests are invited for coffee at 10 on Thursday, Sept. 21 at the home of Mrs. David E. Bradley, 749 Via Somente, Palos Verdes Estates.

Nadine Conner retired two years ago after a busy and successful career of radio shows, European and American tours and appearances with both the Metropolitan and San Francisco Opera Companies. She has returned to private life in Compton with her doctor husband and teen-age son and daughter, and although she no longer sings professionally she is teaching some private pupils who aspire to singing careers.

Mmes. James D. Stewart and Lewis Ewing will pour and Mmes. William Belding, Henry Garbanati, Robert Garland, Malcolm Goldie, Robert Norman, and George Doran will assist as hostesses.

Civil Defense chairman reported on fallout shelters and stressed the importance of taking the course on "Individual and Family Survival" given in the Adult Education Dept.

After the business meeting, a surprise baby shower was given for Mrs. John Wise.

The next social planned by Xi Zeta Lambda is a "Casino" party to be held on Sept. 23rd at the home of Mrs. Bill Swisher. The Chapter is also planning a Halloween party to be held at Higgins Patio on Oct. 14.

David Scholl Weds Texan at Stanford

David William Scholl, son of William Christian Scholl, 815 Beech Ave., Torrance, claimed as his bride, Miss Mary Hallam Randal of Lubbock, Texas, in a double ring ceremony at Stanford Memorial Church on Sept. 1. Dr. Paul S. Heath officiated at the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jack Monroe Randal of Lubbock. She was graduated from Texas Tech in 1957 with a BA degree with a Spanish major. When in college, she was the recipient of many honors. She was president of the first chapter of Mortar Board; president of Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honor society; vice president of the Cosmopolitan Club; member of Phi Kappa Phi; Junior Council; Alpha Lambda Delta; Alpha Chi; Delta Delta sorority and was selected Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The bride was selected as Lubbock's Community Ambassador to Italy under the Experiment in International Living in the summer of 1956. In the spring of 1958, she went to Madrid, Spain, and worked in the Counter-Intelligence Division, OSI, and United States Air Force for two years. At present, she is studying toward a master's degree in the area of Hispanic-American and Lusobrazilian studies at Stanford University.

The bridegroom was graduated from Torrance High school in 1952. He completed his undergraduate and master's degree requirements at USC where he was elected to membership in honor societies of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. He expects to receive his PhD. degree in geological oceanography at Stanford University during the fall quarter.

Prior to going to Stanford, the local man spent two summers in the Arctic locating and investigating the site for the first United States attempt to create a harbor with nuclear devices. In January, he will have a resident research associateship in the Naval Electronics Laboratory in San Diego.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jack Randal of Fort Worth. She wore a street length sheath dress of pale frosted brocade with matching accessories. Her headdress was a white lace mantilla held in place by a tortoise shell comb belonging to her maternal grandmother.

Miss Ann Hartfield of Palo Alto, maid of honor, wore an avocado green linen sheath with beige accessories.

Wayne Alyn Scholl of Fremont, was his brother's best man. Another brother, Phillip Scholl of Torrance, was usher.

Guests were received at Bowman Alumni House on the university campus, following a tradition for weddings solemnized at Stanford Memorial Church.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's father and his brother, Phillip, from Torrance and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carcelli, Los Angeles.

After Sept. 5, the newlyweds will be at home at 4294 Grant Rd., Mountain View, Calif.

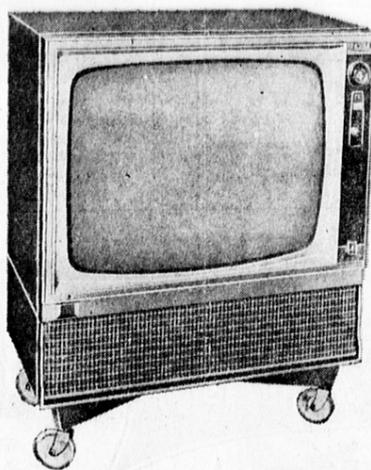

Attend Bird Society Meet

Members of the Harbor Bird Hobbyist club who attended the Avicultural Society of America at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Niemczak in La Mirada on Sept. 10 were Mr. and Mrs. Don Ames, Harbor City; Mr. and Mrs. John Tresler, Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Ted McDaniels and Mrs. Carrol Vernon of Lomita.

Isens Celebrate

Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen of Torrance chose the Three Lions Restaurant as the site of their wedding anniversary dinner.

You'll lose our "price guessing" game every time. Thom McAn is the biggest shoe chain in America, and cuts costs without cutting corners. That leather-on-suede pump is a good example. Latest style. Black leather accents on suede (rich green, magenta, brown, red and blue). And it's only $5.99. Even with that clue, you'll still guess higher when you try it on. Betcha.
