

Area Ticket Chief Named For KC Fete

Herman Ludwig, Grand Knight of St. Patrick's Council, has been named ticket chairman in this area for the Southern California Chapter, Knights of Columbus, annual dinner-dance set for Oct. 21 in Los Angeles.

In making the announcement, General Chairman Samuel J. Palmer Jr., pointed out that the affair will honor Chapter President David D. Haugh and State Deputy Joseph Wilson.

His Eminence, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, will be principal speaker at the Statler Hotel affair, which is the year's social highlight for Southland Knights.

Leo F. Krueger, former chapter president, will serve as master of ceremonies. Other chairmen include: Richard W. Doherty, Alban J. Hunsader, Clyde Hinkley, Ralph Borchard and Ambrose Unger. Bernard Byrne and Richard Kennedy will handle the social activities; Lenard Kleiman, tickets; Alex Babbo, seating;

Capacity Crowd Reported At Bible Tent Services

Evangelist Gerry Hardy reports a full capacity turnout for the opening meeting Saturday night. Hardy is holding a series of meetings at the Big Bible Tent at Sepulveda and Hawthorne Blvd., across the street from Sears on Sepulveda.

and Robert Kiley, public relations. Chapter President David Haugh will present a check from the Knights to Cardinal McIntyre for Rancho San Antonio Boys Home. Dancing will follow the banquet at the Statler.

In addition to the tent, a three-bedroom home on the property has been utilized for the smaller children and babies. There is provision made for 50 children and every crib and chair was filled. The children are well supervised and cared for during the meetings and are shown screened and appropriate movies.

THE SUNDAY night meeting also proved as successful as the opening night with record attendance in both tent and nursery.

Hardy stressed the importance of close communion with God through daily Bible study and stated that faith in God and obedience to his commands are the only sure way to security and happiness. His message opening night was "Facing the Future With Confidence."

Hardy also said "Crime is rampant because of the decline of morals throughout the world and the obsession for pleasure." He referred to J. Edgar Hoover's book "Crimes in America" and related statistics from this book telling of the various types of crime — a major crime committed every 22 seconds. Hardy also referred to Second Timothy, Chapter 3, and read what God had predicted relative to these very facts and figures.

MEETINGS continue each Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday night at 7:45 p.m. There is a special program of music and pictures at 7:15 each evening. Sunday night, Sept. 24th, Hardy will speak on the subject "What Happens to Our Beloved Dead." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Church Offers Inquiry Classes

A new fall winter series of inquiry classes for interested non-Catholics will begin Monday evening, Sept. 25, at 8 p.m. in the parish hall, Father Charles Ara announced this week.

Offering a comprehensive survey of the teachings and practices of the Church at an adult level, the classes will continue every Monday and Thursday evening for about three months.

Father Ara stressed that there are no obligations, no costs, no commitments involved in attending the inquiry classes.

Presented in an informal, relaxed manner, the course hopes to promote better understanding, and to explain the fundamentals of Catholic doctrine, the Mass and the Sacraments. Classes include question and answer sessions. A tour is given of St. Lawrence Church, with explanation of the furnishings and the vestments used.

All interested persons are invited. The parish is located at 1900 Tullita Ave., Redondo Beach. Further information on the classes is available by calling FR 5-6037.

Prededication Dinner Hailed As Successful

The prededication dinner for the new sanctuary held Sept. 16th at Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., was termed "a highly successful event in the life of our church" by E. Earl Kuester, pastor.

Attendance totaled 250 and enthusiasm for the new sanctuary project ran at the highest level yet, according to the pastor. The youth and adult choirs and a youth quartet sang, and Kay Bareford and Elsie Deane Morphis led in spirited singing.

The outstanding feature of the evening was the Building

Committee's presentation of the story behind the building. Items of unusual interest were pointed out, and a demonstration of lighting and audio capability was given by Bob Bareford and Heral Elwall. Clyde Mitchell presented samples of floor covering and pews.

Others who spoke during this part of the program were Bob Buckler, chairman; Jack Keller, and Paul MacAllister. Al Van Selow was master of ceremonies at the dinner. An additional $3000 was raised for furnishings at the close of the meeting.

The pastor will preach next Sunday at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. duplicate services on "The Will of God," and Al Van Selow will speak in the evening at 7 p.m. on "Where You Lead."

WATER FOR INDUSTRY

More water for industry means more jobs for you. An unlimited supply of good water, at reasonable rates, attracts new industries to this Dominguez-Carson-Torrance area.

These firms want locations where the purity of water, and its known chemical content, are uniform, day in and day out.

Water for your community is assured by large natural underground basins, replenished by aqueducts from the Colorado River. Then, atop Dominguez Hill, and other elevated storage in the Torrance area, 31 million gallon reservoirs would maintain pressure by gravity even though electric power failed.

The Dominguez Water Corporation is proud to have contributed so much to the growth of industry in our community during the past 50 years.
