

MERITORIOUS SERVICE . . . Capt. Thomas F. Jeffers of 4815 Lee St. receives the Air Force Commendation Medal from Brig. Gen. J. W. O'Neill, assistant to the commander of the ballistic systems division, Air Force Systems Command.

Capt. Thomas F. Jeffers of 4815 Lee St. has been presented the Air Force Commendation medal for meritorious service as a project officer and chief.

He resides in Torrance with his wife, Phyllis, and two daughters, Diane, 16, and Marilyn, 15.

The medal was presented recently by Brig. Gen. J. W. O'Neill, assistant to the commander of the Ballistic Systems Division in Los Angeles. Capt. Jeffers distinguished himself by meritorious service as project officer and chief of Thor guidance branch, headquarters ballistic missiles center, from Dec. 31, 1958, to Oct. 26, 1959.

"Through his outstanding knowledge of the procurement and production field and effective use of manpower and resources, and by his persistent, determined pursuit of the goals established, he was largely responsible for the success of the THOR guidance program," Gen. O'Neill said.

Capt. Jeffers was born in Brockton, Mass. He graduated from Theodore Roosevelt High School in New York City, attended Rutgers University in New Jersey, and received his MBA degree from the University of Chicago in 1958.

During World War II, Capt. Jeffers served with the 458th Bomb Group, Eighth Air Force in Europe. He was awarded the Air Medal in 1956.

Moniz entered the Army last April. He attended North High School.

Slides to Take Civitans Back To Early Days

Robert C. Keller, seaman, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Keller of 1411 Elm Ave. is serving aboard the attack transport USS Magoffin which has its home port at San Diego.

The ship recently participated in "Exercise Sea Wall," a joint Army, Navy and Air Force amphibious maneuver on San Juan Island, Wash.

The name "Sea Wall" is used in the maneuvers because the landing beach is fortified with large log pilings. The operation was an invasion by Army troops, landing from Navy ships and small craft under the cover of Air Force aerial support. Once there the "invasives."

Torrance Civitans will be taken back to the turn of the century by way of photographic slides at their Wednesday night meeting, it was announced by Dr. A. F. Kline, president.

Joseph La Barbera, assistant community relations director for Title Insurance and Trust Co., will present the program entitled "Yesterday." Members will see slides of the Southland as it looked during the late 1800s and early 1900s. The slides are from a collection belonging to the Title Insurance and Trust Co. and is considered one of the largest collections of its kind. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Jump 'n' Jack.

Army Pvt. George W. Moniz, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moniz, 4520 Deelane St., completed the automotive
