

"Counting you . . . there are 14 things that don't work in this house!!!"

El Camino Pianist to Present Beethoven Concerto at Concert

Dr. Robert Haag, music instructor at El Camino College, will present Beethoven's Concerto No. 5 (the Emperor) in the main dining area at El Camino College, Friday, Oct. 13, at 8:30 p.m. appearing as guest soloist of the Beach Cities Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Haag, a former music teacher at the University of California at Los Angeles, has made many recital appearances in such South California colleges as the University of California at Riverside, Los Angeles State, Bakersfield, and Berkeley. He appeared with baritone Shapleigh Howell at El Camino last year in a recital of Schubert compositions. He is considered an expert on Bach music.

The overture to "Ruslan and Ludmilla" by Blinka and Dvorak's "Fifth (New World) Symphony" also will be performed by the Beach Cities Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Louis Palange.

THE ORCHESTRA, which is beginning its 12th season, has been holding its performances in the Redondo Union High School auditorium. This year, however, it will begin performing in Mira Costa High School's new auditorium.

The program under which the orchestra operates is made possible through the joint sponsorship of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, the Los Angeles County Music Commission, and through a grant from the Recording Industry Trust Fund and the American Federation of Musicians, Local 47, to the Beach Cities Symphony Assn., Inc.
