They include Mmes. Raymond H. Reaber, Ruben Jimenez, L. D. Hessman, Daniel Etter, Jr., Leland R. Partridge, William D. Hyam, Robert Rupkey, and Richard J. Rector, group president.

Mrs. Jimenez will take part in a round table discussion on social and economic issues, relating this branch's study on charitable foundations. She has also been asked to give a summary of the past legislative policy of the AAUW.

Dr. Glenn Kendall, president of Chico State College, who has recently returned from Africa where he served in an advisory capacity for the State Department, will speak on "Bridging the Educational Gap in Emerging African States" at the dinner meeting.

All state officers and committee chairmen will be present at the workshop at which some 500 AAUW members throughout the state are expected. The workshop is designed to strengthen the AAUW program among the branches by providing an opportunity for the interchange of ideas among members under the inspiration and guidance of state officers and chairmen.

A Birthday

Van Noble of Torrance was the host at a cocktail and dinner party at the Three Lions Restaurant, marking the birthday of his wife Pat.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a widow with three children. Several months ago I met a man who treats me just wonderful. He has asked me to marry him when his divorce becomes final. His wife is stubborn and it may be a while yet, but we've decided not to let that interfere with our happiness.

He has taken me and the children on some very educational trips. He buys them presents and they are fond of him. Every weekend he does odd jobs around the house, just the way a husband would.

For my birthday he gave me a beautiful leather purse and inside was a $50 bill. My oldest daughter says I should not accept it. I do not agree with her. After all, I've had him here for weekends. I've cooked for him and done his laundry. If he wants to give me a few gifts in return I feel I should accept them. Who is right? — RESPECTABLE

Dear Respectable: Your signature doesn't match your story. The man you've been traveling with, cooking for and entertaining in your home weekends is married.

Give the purse back — and the man also — to his wife.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For the Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20¢ in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

WATER FOR IRRIGATION

Water—ample water—means the difference between desert and profitable farm land, between waste land and pleasantly green cities. Dependable water supplies, brought here by man's ingenuity, explain the record-breaking growth of Southern California.

In Southland communities served by Dominguez Water Corporation, strictly observing every sound principle of conservation, advance planning for pumping, underground storage and reserve assures every farmer, rancher and home owner an ample supply of pure water for irrigation, for health and for pleasure through the years to come.
